

RURAL SERVICES for FARMERS & RANCHERS

DVR

North Dakota's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation provides rural services to eligible farmers with physical or mental difficulties doing their job because of an impairment.

Do you have difficulty:

- opening gates?
- seeing well enough to complete your tasks?
- hearing others around you?
- climbing grain bins, or getting in and out of farm machinery such as tractors, combines, or grain trucks?

DVR provides information, research, and technical assistance and will work with you to identify potential solutions. Solutions may include:

- Modifications to existing equipment
- Assistive technology
- Improving accessibility

ional Rehabilitation (DVR) provides s and ranchers who are experiencing use of a permanent injury, illness, or

What will it cost?

There is no cost for assessments, research, and recommendations. Costs for any modifications, assistive technology, etc. are based on an individual's ability to contribute.
