
Your Rights Under the Rehabilitation Act

- To apply, or to reapply, for services.
- To make meaningful and informed choices about the services you will receive.
- To participate in the planning of your goals and your services.
- Confidentiality of your case record.
- To review information in your case file.
- To appeal any decision regarding the provision of services you disagree with using administrative review, mediation, or fair hearing.
- To consult with your counselor before your case is closed.
- To be informed of the availability of the Client Assistance Program.
- To receive services without regard to race, national origin, sex, age or disability.

For more information, you may phone, write or visit:

North Dakota Client Assistance Program
1237 W Divide Ave, Ste 3
Bismarck, ND 58501-1208
(701) 328-8947 or ND Toll-free 1-800-207-6122
TDD: (701) 328-8968
E-mail address: cap@nd.gov
Website address: www.nd.gov/cap

Services of the Client Assistance Program are provided on a non-discriminatory basis in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act as amended, without regard to race, color, national origin, sex or disability.