Rescheduled: Educational Seminar for Direct Care Workers to be Held in Devils Lake

BISMARCK, N.D. – The N.D. Department of Human Services' Medical Services Division will hold an educational seminar in Devils Lake on Thursday, March 21, 2013, from 1 to 3 p.m. for current qualified service providers and anyone interested in being an in-home caregiver. The event is in the Historical Room at the Ramsey County Social Service Office, 523 Fourth Ave. N.E. This meeting was originally scheduled for Feb. 14, 2013, but was cancelled due to weather.

The meeting will include an interactive online demonstration on how to complete enrollment forms and billing documents, an overview of programs and services available through the department that support independent living, and a review of provider rates and reimbursement requirements. There will also be a discussion about how to become a qualified service provider, as well as the responsibilities associated with being a caregiver.

Anyone interested in attending is encouraged to preregister by contacting Katie Yantzer, direct service workforce development coordinator, at 1-800-755-2604, ND Relay TTY 1-800-366-6888 or keyantzer@nd.gov.

Individuals interested in working as a qualified service provider should contact their local county social service office. Information is online at www.nd.gov/dhs/locations/countysocialserv/. People can also call the Department of Human Services toll free at 1-855-GO2-LINK (855-462-5465) or ND Relay TTY 1-800-366-6888.
