Council to focus on youth transitions and other topics at July 18-19 meeting

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota State Rehabilitation Council is meeting July 18-19 in Bismarck to discuss programs and services, capacity building, processes supporting youth with disabilities as they transition from school, business partner awards and other topics.

Members will meet from 1 to 5 p.m. on July 18 and from 9 a.m. to noon on July 19, in the Prairie Rose Room at the North Dakota Department of Human Services' Prairie Hills Plaza office complex, 1237 W. Divide Ave., Ste. 1B. Participants should enter through door No. 2.

A complete meeting agenda is online at www.nd.gov/dhs/info/publicnotice/index.html.

North Dakota is a leader in the employment of people with disabilities. The council works to raise awareness of disability issues and to promote collaboration among individuals, public agencies, private organizations and businesses to improve integrated community employment of working-age adults with disabilities.

Council information is available online at www.nd.gov/dhs/dvr/councils-partners/ndsrc.html.

Individuals who need accommodations to participate in the meeting or who would like more information can contact Aimee Volk, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, North Dakota Department of Human Services, 1237 W.
