ND Committee on Aging to discuss goals and other matters at March 13 meeting

BISMARCK, N.D. – The Committee on Aging, which advises the North Dakota Department of Human Services on the needs of older adults, will focus on goals when members meet Friday, March 13 at 10 a.m. CT at the Aging Services Division’s offices, 1237 W. Divide Ave., Suite No. 6, in Bismarck.

The committee previously identified four goals for 2020: supporting home and community-based services, Aging and Disability Resource Link services, person-centered planning and guardianship services.

The agenda also includes member updates, a report from the division, committee vacancies, and time for public comment on aging issues. Other business may be discussed. The full agenda is available online at www.nd.gov/dhs/info/publicnotice/index.html.

Individuals unable to attend in person can also join by conference call at 701-328-7950, using collaboration code 973593#.

Individuals with disabilities who need accommodations to participate in the meeting should contact Amy Kraft in advance of the meeting at 701-328-4601, toll-free 855-462-5465 (the Aging and Disability Resource LINK line), 711 (TTY) or alkraft@nd.gov.

Committee on Aging information is available online at www.nd.gov/dhs/services/adultsaging/gcoa.html.
