Consequences:

I know that state and federal privacy laws protect my records. I know:

- Why I am being asked to release this information;
- I do not have to consent to the release of this information;
- That, generally, I must give my written consent for the Minnesota Department of Human Services to give out the information;
- The person or agency who gets my information may be able to pass it on to others;
- If I do not consent, the information will not be released unless the law otherwise allows it;
- I may stop this consent with a written notice at any time, but this written notice will not affect information the agency has already released;
- This consent will end one year from the date I sign it, unless the law allows for a longer period.
