The interim reciprocal plan is required for those applicants who have graduated from out of state approved teacher education institutions but have not met North Dakota standards.

- Instructions:
1. You should have received a copy of your transcript review. If not, please call (701) 328-9641.
  2. At the end of your transcript review, please enter number 21 or 22, under "Interim Reciprocal Requirements". There are courses listed that you will need to complete within either two- or four-years.
  3. Review these requirements and visit with the state-approved teacher education program of your choice for information on completion of the requirements.
  4. Print this document and provide the information on how you will complete the required courses.
  5. Fax to (701) 328-9647.
