

Program Standards and Matrix
INITIAL PROGRAMS IN DRAMA EDUCATION

ND ESPB Standards
05015.1 The program requires study of theater as a social and aesthetic experience as well as a reflection of culture. The study includes a broad view of the history of theater and acquaintance with representative plays of past and present. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge. 05015.2 The program requires study and experiences needed to direct a theatrical production. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge. 05015.3 The program requires study of the basic acting skills and techniques to guide, promote, and stimulate necessary artistic skills for individuals and groups as performers in theatrical productions. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

05015.4 The program requires study and experiences designed to develop the technical skills needed in theatrical production including effective planning and execution of scenery, lights, make-up, sound, properties, costume, and special effects. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

05015.5 The program requires studying the methods of teaching drama including current trends in drama with an examination of a variety of teaching methods and techniques. The program uses a variety of performance assessments of candidates' understanding and ability to apply that knowledge.

05015.6 The program requires the study of current, appropriate instructional technologies. The program uses varied performance assessments of candidates' understanding and abilities to apply that knowledge.