RETIREMENT OF TROOPER DANA KING

Colonel Mark Nelson, superintendent of the North Dakota Highway Patrol, announces the retirement of Trooper Dana King. Effective April 30, 2009, Trooper Dana King retired as a sworn officer from the North Dakota Highway Patrol after almost 28 years of service with the North Dakota Highway Patrol.

Trooper King began his career with the Highway Patrol in June 1981 attending the Highway Patrol Academy. Upon graduation from the Academy, he was stationed in Killdeer. In July 1986, he was reassigned to the Devils Lake District stationed at Langdon. In August 2006, Trooper King was reassigned to the Post Seizure Analysis Team in Grand Forks where he has serviced until his retirement.
