1. No public service or funds may be used by the candidates to promote their election except as permitted by the employing agency.
2. Nomination petitions must be filed with the North Dakota public employees retirement system no later than four p.m. on the first Friday of May and must be validated by the election committee or their representatives following the filing deadline and prior to ballots being distributed.
3. Nomination petitions not furnished by the North Dakota public employees retirement system will be accepted provided they are submitted in the prescribed form.

4. A candidate may withdraw that candidate's nomination petition up until the time the ballots are printed. The notice must be in writing and duly witnessed.

5. Nomination petitions may be accompanied by a three-inch [76.20-millimeter] by five-inch [127.00-millimeter] photograph of the candidate and a narrative not to exceed two hundred words. The narrative must be signed to be valid. The absence of a photo or narrative will not invalidate the candidate's eligibility, but only the candidate's name will then appear with the other candidates' information that accompanies the ballots.

6. The retirement board or its representative reserves the right to edit lengthy narratives to the two hundred word limit. Board decisions are final.

7. The board or its representative shall inform all candidates of the validation of their candidacy by first-class United States mail.

1. Ballots must be prepared by the North Dakota public employees retirement system staff in accordance with the election rules.

2. Ballots must be printed on postcards with return postage supplied and will be mailed to all eligible voters with a narrative on candidates who have provided that information to the North Dakota public employees retirement system.

3. Ballots must first be arranged with the names of each candidate on the ballot, in an order determined by lot. In printing the ballots, the position of the names must be changed as many times as there are candidates' names on the ballot. The change must be accomplished by taking the name at the head of the ballot and placing it at the bottom and moving the name that was second before the change to the head of the names on the ballot. The same number of ballots must be printed after each change of position so as to result in an equal number of ballots with each candidate's name at the head of the ballot. The ballot must provide a space for write-in candidates.

4. If there is only one candidate for an election, the election will nonetheless be conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

Ballots must be mailed by first-class United States mail to the home address of all eligible active voters for an election of an active board member, or eligible retired voters for an election of a retired board member, who are actively at work or retired as determined by the North Dakota public employees retirement system's membership roles as of April fifteenth in the year of the election.
2. North Dakota public employees retirement system members who become eligible to vote after April fifteenth, but before the deadline for the receipt of ballots, may be issued a special election ballot by making their request for such ballot in writing to the North Dakota public employees retirement system office no later than the second Monday in June.
3. Ballots must be returned to the North Dakota public employees retirement system office no later than the close of business on the Friday immediately preceding the third Monday in June.
4. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes must be considered elected. When there is more than one active member board vacancy to be filled, the candidate with the second highest number of votes must be considered elected. If there are three active member board vacancies to be filled, the person with the third highest number of votes must be considered elected.

71-01-02-09. Canvassing rules.

1. Ballot counting by election committee members or their authorized representatives will commence at nine a.m. on the third Monday of June and will continue until complete.
2. Each candidate may have one overseer present at the canvassing who may examine each ballot as to its sufficiency after the canvassers have completed the canvassing of all ballots. No overseer may possess a pen, pencil, or other device which could be considered capable of altering a ballot in any manner.
3. A candidate may act as his or her overseer. If a candidate wishes to designate a representative to act as his or her overseer, that candidate must provide a written authorization, duly witnessed, to the election committee at the canvassing. An overseer may act on behalf of more than one candidate; however, each person must show the required authorization from each candidate represented.

4. The overseer may question the decision of the canvassers regarding a ballot after completion of the canvassing. If questioned, the comments of an overseer will be heard. The canvassers will then vote regarding the acceptability of the ballot with the majority vote ruling.

5. A ballot is not valid where the number of votes on the ballot exceeds the number of vacancies in the election. A ballot that does not, in the opinion of a majority of the canvassers, show a clear indication of the voter's intention, may not be counted.

6. If the percentage of votes received by the candidate receiving the highest number of votes is less than one percent more than the votes received by the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes, the board shall order a recount.

7. Tie votes will be determined by a roll of two dice by each of the tied candidates; the successful candidate must have the highest total. If this procedure is necessary, the election committee will establish and notify the tied candidates of the procedure and location for resolving the tie.

2. All candidates will be notified of the election results by mailing a copy of the election report by first-class United States mail no later than the business day following the June meeting of the retirement board.

3. Departments and agencies participating in the North Dakota public employees retirement system will be notified of the election results by mailing a copy of the election report.
