To write the CPA exam in ND requires:

1. Good moral character.
2. Education: At least 150 semester hours of college education including a baccalaureate or higher degree or their equivalent conferred by a college or university acceptable to the board, the total educational program to include an accounting concentration of 24 semester credits or equivalent of accounting education (not to include principles or equivalent), plus 24 credits of other business courses or equivalent.

One quarter credit = 2/3 semester credit.

Examination details

The CPA Examination can be written during a 60 day "window" -- the first two months of each quarter (e.g. April and May). An application packet can be obtained from the Board office or from the forms section of the website. All application materials are to be submitted in one package. Applicants are encouraged to submit applications 30 days in advance of their target writing date.

The four sections of the CPA Exam may be taken individually and in any order. An applicant shall retain conditional credit for any section passed, for 18 months after their test date, with no minimum score required on failed sections. An applicant must pass all exam sections within a rolling 18 month period (starting the date they took the first section passed). An Exam section may not be retaken in the same 60 day testing window. If all Exam sections are not passed in the 18 month period, credit will expire for any section passed outside the 18 month period.

Candidates who hold conditional Exam status as of April 4, 2004, will be allowed a transition period to complete the remaining sections. The transition period is the length of time or the number of writing opportunities they have remaining under the paper test rules (maximum: 6 attempts or 3 years), whichever the candidate exhausts first. During the transition period, candidates who pass a section of the computer exam will not lose conditional credit for that section before the end of their transition period.

Candidates who have passed all or parts of the CPA exam elsewhere may transfer those grades providing credit would have been given under our then-applicable requirements if the exam had been taken in this state.

Education details

Q. For the concentration, what counts as "accounting" and what counts as "other business"?

A. Accounting concentrations means: (after 12/31/09), 24 semester credits or equivalent of accounting courses, plus 24 credits of other business courses. Principles of accounting or equivalent courses do not count toward the required accounting or business courses. Up to 3 credits of economics credits may be included in the other business courses." The accounting portion may include classes with an accounting, audit, or tax rubric. The other-business portion may include classes with a rubric of business, management, finance or marketing. Additional accounting classes also qualify, and up to 3 Economics credits.

Q. Does a person have to finish all classes before writing the CPA exam?

A. No, the Board can allow you to write if it is satisfied you will complete your education within six months after your exam application date.

Foreign education

In order to write the exam as a North Dakota candidate, education completed at non-U.S. schools is to be evaluated for equivalency with U.S. standards. The evaluation should be performed on a course by course basis. To obtain an evaluation, contact a member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services; <http://www.naces.org>.

To become a CPA in ND requires:

1. Good moral character
2. Passage of the Uniform CPA Examination, according to Board regulations and policies
3. Completion of the Professional Ethics: The AICPA's Comprehensive Course (as of February 3, 2003)
4. Experience: One year of experience meeting relevant conditions (after December 31, 2000)
5. Providing details of other accounting credentials
6. Payment of applicable fees

Reciprocal certificates

CPAs who hold a certificate from another state may obtain a reciprocal CPA certificate, provided they have passed the CPA exam and met other requirements for a certificate and pay the applicable fees. There is also provision for obtaining a ND certificate without meeting all these requirements, if the applicant (or the state which issued their certificate) has attained substantial equivalency.

Substantial equivalency

An individual whose principal place of business is not in this state shall have all the privileges of certificate holders and licensees of this state without the need to obtain a certificate or permit, if the individual holds a valid certificate as a CPA from a state that has attained substantial equivalency, or if the individual's CPA qualifications are deemed to meet substantial equivalency. Contact our office to pursue this option.

Reciprocal certificates for foreign accounting designations

North Dakota's accounting law makes provision for issuing certificates to holders of foreign accounting credentials under certain conditions. Contact the Board for details.

Other states' requirements

The various states' requirements are laid out in The Digest of State Accountancy Laws & State Board Regulations prepared by the AICPA and NASBA. To obtain a copy: Call 888-777-7077. Follow the menu to the order department.
