

TEACHERS IN TRANSITION

Will your teachers need answers to any of these questions in the next few years?

Teachers in Transition is a new counseling program offered to TFFR members whose school may be facing closure or consolidation.

The group presentation is designed to provide information about the retirement options available to members leaving TFFR-covered employment. Individual benefit counseling sessions will also be available.

If you would like a benefits counselor to visit your school to provide this valuable service, please contact the administrative office.
