

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA
OFFICE OF STATE TAX COMMISSIONER
Cory Fong, Commissioner

Dear Financial Institution Tax Filer:

The Office of State Tax Commissioner has adopted an Automated Clearing House (ACH) credit procedure to accept electronic funds transfer (EFT) payments for Financial Institution Tax. For example, Financial Institution Tax Form 35PV payments, payments with returns, payments for assessments, and payments for the Distribution Fund portion of the tax will be accepted via EFT payments. No pre-registration is required and there are no forms to submit.

Essential information must be provided with an EFT payment submitted to the Commissioner's banking institution to insure the funds are applied correctly to a taxpayer's account. This information is provided in an addenda record, which is part of the EFT transaction, and includes:

- the taxpayer federal identification number
- tax type code
- tax reporting period end date
- amount type
- amount

Page 2 provides the banking convention layout for the addenda record and an example. The layout uses the banking standard TXP format.

A separate ACH credit and TXP addenda record must be submitted for each payment.

The taxpaying entity must contact their banking institution to initiate a payment and to provide the following banking information:

- The Commissioner utilizes the services of the Bank of North Dakota.
- The American Banking Association bank transit routing number for the Bank of North Dakota is "091300285".
- The Commissioner's account number at the Bank of North Dakota, to which funds should be transferred, is "0910231".

You must contact your banking institution to send a prenotification (i.e., $0.00 ACH credit transaction) to test the accuracy of the TXP format before you send an actual tax payment.

We ask that once you make a financial institution tax payment by EFT, you continue to make all financial institution tax payments using the EFT method.

Please contact Amanda Wehner if you have any questions. You can reach her at 701.328.3239, fax at 701.328.1942, or by e-mail at awechner@nd.gov.
