Role of Team Sponsor

Each team is required to have a sponsor. This is not a financial sponsor, but rather a mentor who will look after the best interest of the dog and report back to SDA. The sponsor may be an individual or a service organization outside the handler's immediate family that agrees to periodically check on the status of the team.

The sponsor is not asked to intervene or take action unless an emergency exists or has concerns that may include:

- Dog is not being cared for properly, including veterinary care and vaccinations;
- Dog is not being used as per the contract, including established safekeeping practices;
- Handler is not following training protocols;
- Handler is experiencing additional medical/mental issues that place the dog at risk;
- Handler talks of surrendering or otherwise giving up the dog.

Interview & Wait List Procedure

- Following the review team's receipt of and review of the application, the applicant will be notified by mail that the documentation is complete and that she/he should contact SDA's client coordinator and make an appointment for a personal interview.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Frequently Asked Questions PTSD Service Dogs

Service Dogs for America History

Service Dogs for America (SDA) trained its first service dog in 1989 and placed it with SDA's first client in 1990.

In 1992, SDA was officially designated as a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization. SDA is an accredited service dog school member of Assistance Dogs International.

SDA trains and places service dogs to assist with mobility issues, diabetic and seizure disorders, and PTSD. We do not train or place dogs that would assist with any type of visual or hearing impairment.

The mission of SDA is to: "train and certify service dogs for individuals with disabilities"

PTSD Service Dog Trained Tasks

Training service dogs for individuals living with Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) requires very specialized knowledge and skills - in both the trainer and the dog. These service dogs must possess a perceptive nature, a courteous, compliant temperament and an intuitive spirit in order to perform their duties independently when the individual is facing a crisis. SDA's training team works to identify and evaluate these unique dogs, and then train them to recognize and interrupt the behaviors associated with anxiety, panic attacks and nightmares. SDA's trainers evaluate both dogs and applicants in order to effectively pair a successful team.

Each dog is trained to a standard, and additional training is customized to the individual needs of the applicant. SDA is committed to working together with the applicant and their service dog as they learn to work as a team to increase physical, emotional and social self-sufficiency. The dogs are trained to perform many services including, but not limited to:

- Alleviate anxiety/distress and provide psycho-emotional grounding by nudging, pawing, and leaning.
- Assist a person in waking from night terrors and nightmares.
- Distract a person from an event or specific maladaptive behavior by nudging, pawing, and licking.
- Bring medication to a person on command or when alerted to do so by a timer/alarm.
- Stand in front of or circle an individual in crowded areas in order to create personal space in a non-aggressive manner.
- Lead an individual safely to a building exit when experiencing an anxiety or panic attack.
- Get help by alerting another person or activate an emergency button or alert system.

They are not trained to be guard dogs or act aggressive

A trained PTSD service dog is a tool and is not intended to substitute or replace current therapeutic or medication treatment plan. The dog is trained to mitigate and distract from possible stressors related to an individual's PTSD and contribute to their physical, emotional and social well-being.
