18TH BIRTHDAY, DIES IN FRANCE FROM INJURIES

Seventh Member Of Co. B
 Dies on Double Anniversary "Over There"

ENLISTED JUST YEAR BEFORE DEATH

Red Cross Nurse Writes
 His Mother, Giving Details Of Passing

Walter Joseph Keefe of Fargo, a member of company B, is dead in France, passing away on July 30, according to a letter received this morning by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Keefe, 121 Ninth street North.

Walter Keefe is the seventh member of company B to die in the service since the company left Fargo nearly a year ago.

July 30, the day of his death, was Walter Keefe's 18th birthday, and it was just one year from the day that he enlisted.

Anna E. Borney, Red Cross nurse, who cared for Walter Keefe during the first three days he was in the American Red Cross Military Hospital No. 1, writing to Mrs. Keefe, gives details of the Fargo boy's injuries, and his death.

"He was wounded in both legs, and one hand—the left leg being badly infected, which caused his death," writes the nurse. "I am glad that I can tell you everything was done that could be to save his life. I took care of him from the first two or three days after he came, then he was transferred to another ward, but I never lost track of him."

"One morning I came on duty and found him not as well as he seemed the night before. I asked him if he would like to have me write to you, and he said, yes, and to tell you that he didn't feel well enough to write then, but would later, and for you not to worry."

"He was a very dear boy, and the nurses were all very fond of him."

Walter Keefe is survived by his parents, three sisters and three brothers, all residing in Fargo.

Lord, how trivial seems my Calvary
 When I consider Thine,
 For only Simon helped Thee lift Thy cross,
 But many carry mine!
 I am not scolded, nor scourged, nor ridiculed,
 And all along the way are many sweet, Verily us + wipe my tears away!

The cruel nail wounds in my hands,
 None on my brow,
 And no cherishing angels walk with me to with the way.
 But Thou! How dare I think it, call it Calvary—
 This sheltered life of mine—
 O broken, beaten, bleeding Lord, my God,
 When I consider Thine. —VERA MARIE TRACY

THE FELLER ME MUDDER T'INKS I AM.

Whilst walking down a crowded city street the other day, I heard a little urchin to a comrade turn and say:
 "Hi, Chimmie, lemme tell youse, I'd be happy as a clam,
 If only I was the feller dat me mudder t'inks I am.
 She t'inks I am a wonder, and she knows her little lad Could never mix wit' nutting dat was ugly, mean or bad, Oh, lots of times I sit and t'ink how nice 'twould be, gee wiz, If a feller was de feller dat his mudder t'inks he is."

Body of Walter Keefe, 1921 Sept. To Arrive Tomorrow

The body of Walter J. Keefe, who left Fargo with Company B, First North Dakota, and who died on July 29, 1918, of wounds received in the Chateau Thierry fighting in France, will arrive in Fargo tomorrow.
 Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m., on Saturday or Monday. The exact date will be announced later.
 Private Keefe was in the employ of the Central Drug company when Company B was ordered out in 1917.
 Overseas he was transferred from the Fargo company to Co. D, 18th infantry, of which he was a member when he was wounded.
 He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keefe, 121 Ninth st N, four brothers and three sisters.
 Members of Company B are asked to hold themselves in readiness to attend the funeral and march in the funeral procession. Pall bearers will be Jack Hurly, Ray Woolworth, Frank Bassett, R. E. F. Colley, George Zalusky, and William Kroll.

All members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Gilbert C. Grafton Post, American Legion, are requested to meet at the Wasem-Gaard chapel at 2:30 o'clock Saturday to attend the funeral of one of their members, Mrs.
 Tillie C. Sunde. The members are also asked to meet at 9 o'clock Monday at

New friends I cherish and treasure their worth,
 But old friends to me are the salt of the earth.
 Friends are like garments that everyone wears—
 New ones are needed for dress-up affairs;
 But when we're at leisure, we're more apt to choose The clothes that we purchased with last season's shoes.
 Things we grow used to are things we love best—
 The ones we are certain have weathered the test.
 And isn't it true, since we're talking of friends,
 That new ones bring pleasure when everything blends?
 But when we want someone who thinks as we do
 And who fits, as I said, like last summer's shoe,— We turn to the friends who have stuck through the years,
 Who echo our laughter and dry up our tears;
 They know every weakness and fault we possess,
 But somehow forget them in friendship's caress.
 The story is old, yet fragrant and sweet;
 I've said it before, but just let me repeat:
 New friends I cherish and treasure their
 worth,
 But old friends to me are the salt of the earth.

Boys and Girls

Little boys
 Are made of noise,
 Electric trains
 And model planes,
 Of bubble gum
 And beating drum,
 Of ball and bat,
 And things like that.

Little girls
 Are made of curls,
 Of ruffled clothes,
 And bright hair bows,
 Of baby dolls,
 And jacks and balls,
 Of bracelets, rings,
 And pretty things.

How strange when childhood tastes so vary That boys and girls grow up and marry!

BRONZE TABLET SERVICE ROLL OF COMPANY B IS PRESENTED

Accurate Record Cast In Bronze, Given By Company B Auxiliary

MAY BE PLACED ON BOULDER IN PARK

Out Of 166 Men Who Left Fargo; 23 Were Left
In France

Presentation of a bronze tablet containing the service roll of Company B by members of the Company B auxiliary to the returned members of Company B occurred today as a part of the Armistice day program.

The presentation was made by Adj. Gen. G. A. Fraser from the sidewalk leading to the armory which overlooks the drive into Island park.
The sidewalk from Johnson's store to the armory building was roped off for the reviewing officers and the relatives of men of Company B who died in France. Capt. R. F. E. Colley received the tablet for Company B.

The tablet, which is of solid bronze, with the letters of the names cast three-eighths of an inch high, is 24 by 42 inches and is known as the heroic type of tablet.

On Boulder in Park.

It will probably be placed upon a granite boulder either in Island park or in the Northern Pacific park, where it may stand as a permanent memorial.

The money with which the tablet was purchased was earned by the auxiliary through the booth at which they sold refreshments at the state fair in Fargo. Ordering of the table-tlet was deferred until an accurate record of the company had been obtained. It took more than a year to get this.

Company B men comprised the first unit of men to go from Cass county for service in the World war. The roster at the time the company left Fargo contained 166 names. Of these 166 names, 23 and that of Colonel Grafton come under the tablet heading, "Died in France". Only 143 returned, and many of these 143 had been gassed and wounded.

STAR OF GOLD IN FLAG.

A star of gold has been placed on the service flag of St. Mary's cathedral in honor of Pvt. Walter Joseph Keefe, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Keefe, 208 Eighth street north, who was the first member of St. Mary's cathedral in service to make the supreme sacrifice. Pvt.
Keefe died in a hospital in Nantes, France on July 30, from the effect of wounds received in battle.

in the first group, killed July 30-1918

The call to federal service came July 15, 1917. The company was recruited to full strength, and on Sept.
29, 1917, entrained for Camp Greene, near Charlotte, N. C., where the members arrived on Oct. 5, 1917 and plunged into training for services overseas. Gruelling infantry drill filled the schedule for six weeks.
Company B, First North Dakota infantry became Company B, 164th infantry of the 41st division.

On Nov. 16 they broke camp at Camp Greene, and entrained for Camp Mills, L. I., where the training became more intense. On Dec. 6, they were ordered to Camp Merritt, N. J., and a few days later went aboard the Leviathan, the German ship, Vaterland, which had been seized in American ports, and sailed for France on the ship's initial trip as an American transport.

On Dec. 24, 1917, the company landed at Liverpool, Eng., and on Christmas day, piled up their baggage and made their bunks in the English rest camp near Winchester. On New Year's day they made up their packs and left for Southampton to board the British transport Londonderry and cross the English channel. After spending the night at Le Havre, the company moved to La Courtine, arriving Jan. 6.

Company B Broken Up

On Jan. 9, 1918, all the privates in the regiment were transferred to the First division and were among the first American soldiers to go into action in France. The officers and the non-commissioned officers formed a skeleton organization for a company of new men. They were assigned to duty with the First corps school stationed at Gondrecourt and took up their duties as instructors of recruits, Jan. 23, 1918, in the division training area, department of Loir and Cher, near St. Romans, where they remained until fall.

But this was not the old Company B. The men who had gone from Fargo and Cass county as Company B guardsmen were scattered wherever the First division had gone.
They fought from the time American troops entered the war, and they made a glorious record.

New Company B Returns

Company B, the new Company B, on Jan. 27, 1919, entrained for Brest, embarked on the U. S. S. President

Grant, landed at Hoboken, N. J., Feb.
26 and on the following day moved to Camp Dix, N. J., where on Feb.
27, 1919, the company ceased to exist.
The entire membership was transferred to the depot brigade and in the course of a few days discharged.

Other members of the original Company B, that left Fargo in September, drifted back by ones and twos as they received their discharges from their respective units. Some did not return, some were left in graves on the battlefields of France.
The tablet commemorates their service.
