The following definitions apply to this chapter:

1. "Adjusted trading" means selling an investment to a counterparty at a price above its current fair value and simultaneously purchasing or committing to purchase from the counterparty another investment at a price above its current market value.

2. "Borrowing repurchase transaction" means a transaction in which the credit union agrees to sell a security to a counterparty and to repurchase the same or identical security from the counterparty at a specified future date and at a specified price.

6. "Derivatives" means financial instruments or other contracts whose value is based on the performance of an underlying financial asset, index, or other investment that has the three following characteristics:

   a. It has one or more underlyings and one or more notional amounts or payment provisions or both that determine the amount of the settlement or settlements, and, in some cases, whether or not a settlement is required;

   b. It requires no initial net investment or an initial net investment that is less than would be required for other types of contracts that would be expected to have a similar response to changes in market factors; and

   c. Its terms require or permit net settlement, it can readily be settled net by means outside the contract, or it provides for delivery of an asset that puts the recipient in a position not substantially different from net settlement, contract that derives its value from the value and performance of some other underlying financial instrument or variable, such as an index or interest rate.

7. "Derivatives Clearing Organization" has the meaning as defined by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) in 17 CFR 1.3 effective March 15, 2021.

12. "Embedded option" means a characteristic of an investment that gives the issuer or holder the right to alter the level and timing of the cashflows of the investment. Embedded options include call and put provisions and interest rate caps and floors. Since a prepayment option in a mortgage is a type of call provision, a mortgage-backed security composed of mortgages that may be prepaid is an example of an investment with an embedded option.

14. "European financial options contract" means an option that can be exercised only on its expiration date.

15. "External Service Provider" means any entity that provides services to management in carrying out its Derivatives program and the requirements of this subpart.

must be deposited between parties to a Derivatives transaction, as detailed in a Master Services out standard terms that apply to all transactions entered into between those parties. The most common form of a Master Services Agreement for Derivatives is an International Swap Dealer Association Master Agreement.

25. "Maturity" means the date the last principal amount of a security is scheduled to come due and does not mean the call date or the weighted average life of a security.

26. "Non-cleared" means transactions that do not go through a Derivatives Clearing Organization

27. "Put" means a financial options contract that entitles the holder to sell, entirely at the holder’s option, a specified quantity of a security at a specified price at any time until the stated expiration date of the contract.

exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

"Security" means a share, participation, or other interest in property or in an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer that:

a. Either is represented by an instrument issued in bearer or registered form or, if not represented by an instrument, is registered in books maintained to record transfers by or on behalf of the issuer;

"Senior Executive Officer" means a person who participates or has authority to participate in major policymaking and decision-making functions of the credit union, whether or not the officer has an official title. For the purpose of this definition, affiliate is an entity the credit union has an ownership interest directly or indirectly, but not an ownership interest due to funding of employee benefits.

"Weighted average life" means the weighted average time to the return of a dollar of principal. Calculated by multiplying each portion of principal received by the time at which it is expected to be received, based on a reasonable and supportable estimate of that time, and then summing and dividing by the total amount of principal.

"Zero coupon investment" means an investment that makes no periodic interest payments but instead is sold at a discount from its face value. The holder of a zero coupon investment realizes the rate of return through the gradual appreciation of the investment, which is redeemed at face value on a specified maturity date.

A credit union may invest in the following types of investments:

1. Bonds of the United States without limitation in securities issued as direct obligations of the United States government or any agency thereof and in any trust established for investing directly or collectively in such securities.

2. Bonds or evidences of debt of this state or in bonds of states of the United States.

3. Bonds or certificates of indebtedness of any county, city, or school district in the United States, issued pursuant to authority of law, subject to a limitation of thirty percent of the assets of the credit union.

4. First lien, public utility, industrial, corporation, or association bonds, notes or other evidences of debt issued by corporations located in the United States to the extent authorized under chapter 13-03-03. These investments must be rated as investment grade or better by an industry-recognized information provider such as Moody’s, Standard & Poors, or Fitch in one of the four highest rating categories by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization registered with the securities and exchange commission. In the case of different ratings from different rating organizations, the lower rating applies.

For purposes of this section, the United States dollar-denominated London interbank offered rate (LIBOR) is a domestic interest rate.

9. A fixed rate or variable rate collateralized mortgage obligation or real estate mortgage investment conduit issued by an agency of the federal government.

10. Derivative products but only for the purposes of managing interest rate risk and subject to the limitations outlined in 13-03-22-15.

The credit union retains internal staff to meet the requirements of section 5 of this rule.

If a credit union has violated any part of this section, is or has engaged in unsafe or unsound practices, or is in unsafe or unsound condition, the Commissioner may provide written notice to the credit union prohibiting them from entering into new Derivatives transactions, effective upon receipt of the notice. The Commissioner may also require divestiture of derivative products. The credit union can appeal this prohibition or divestiture to the State Credit Union Board, and must provide written notice of their intent to appeal to the Department within 20 days of receipt of the prohibition or divestiture requirement as outlined in §6-01-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code.

3. The charitable donation accounts will be held as a segregated custodial account or special purpose entity and must be specifically identified as a charitable donation account.

4. Any trust established for the charitable donation account must be regulated by a state or federal financial regulatory agency, and any trustee or persons making investment decisions for the charitable donation account must be a registered investment advisor or regulated by a state or federal agency.

5. The board of directors of the credit union has established policies governing the account consistent with the requirements of this section and safe and sound business practices.

6. The terms and conditions of the written agreement between the parties to the charitable donation account shall:

   a. Be consistent with the provisions of this section and safe and sound business practices.

8. Upon termination and liquidation of the charitable donation account, credit unions may receive a distribution in kind of remaining assets or cash if the assets are otherwise permissible investments for a credit union.

1. The board of directors of each credit union must at least annually review its fidelity and other insurance coverage to ensure that it is adequate in relation to the potential risks facing the credit union and the minimum requirements set by the state credit union board.

2. The board of directors must review all applications for purchase or renewal of its fidelity bond coverage. The board must pass a resolution approving the purchase or renewal of fidelity bond coverage and delegate one member of the board, who is not an employee of the credit union, to sign the purchase or renewal agreement and all attachments; provided, however, that no board members may be a signatory on consecutive purchase or renewal agreements for the same fidelity bond coverage policy.

13-03-24-03. Acceptable bond forms.

At a minimum, the bond coverage must:

1. Be purchased in an individual policy from a company holding a certificate of authority from the secretary of the treasury.

2. Include fidelity bonds that cover fraud and dishonesty by all employees, directors, officers, supervisory committee members, and credit committee members. Fidelity bond coverage may also cover activities of a credit union service organization provided the credit union owns more than 50% of the credit union service organization or the CUSO or it is organized by the credit union for the exclusive benefit of the credit union’s employees.

3. Include an option for the liquidating agent to purchase coverage in the event of an involuntary liquidation that extends the discovery period for a covered loss for at least one year after liquidation.

4. In the case of a voluntary liquidation, remain in effect, or provide that the discovery period is extended, for at least four months after the final distribution of assets.

5. Be a bond form that has been approved by the national credit union administration board. The following basic bonds have been approved:

2. This is the minimum coverage required, but a credit union's board of directors should purchase additional coverage when circumstances warrant, such as cash on hand or cash in transit. In making this determination, a board of directors should consider its own internal risk assessment, its fraud trends and loss experience, and factors such as its cash on hand, cash in transit, and the nature and risks inherent in any expanded services it offers such as wire transfer and remittance services.

3. While the above is the minimum amount of bond coverage, credit unions should maintain increased coverage equal to the greater of either of the following amounts within thirty days of discovery of the need for such increase:
   a. The amount of the daily cash fund, i.e., daily cash plus anticipated daily money receipts on the credit union's premises; or
   b. The total amount of the credit union's money in transit in any one shipment.
   c. Increased coverage is not required pursuant to this subsection when the credit union temporarily increases its cash fund because of unusual events which cannot reasonably be expected to recur.

4. Any aggregate limit of liability provided for in a fidelity bond policy must be at least twice the single loss limit of liability. This requirement does not apply to optional insurance coverage.

5. Any proposal to reduce the required bond coverage must be approved in writing by the state credit union board at least twenty days in advance of the effective date of the reduction.

13-03-24-05. Maximum allowable deductibles.

1. The maximum amount of allowable deductibles is computed based on a credit union's asset size, as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assets</th>
<th>Maximum Deductible</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$0 - $100,000</td>
<td>No deductibles allowed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>$100,001 - $250,000</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>$250,001 - $1,000,000</td>
<td>$2,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>----------------------</td>
<td>-------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over $1,000,000</td>
<td>$2,000 plus 1/1000 of total assets up to a maximum deductible of $200,000; for credit unions that have received a composite CAMELS rating of “1” or “2” for the last two (2) full examinations and maintained a net worth classification of well capitalized for the six (6) immediately preceding quarters, the maximum deductible is $1,000,000.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

2. The deductibles may apply to one or more insurance clauses in a policy. Any deductibles in excess of the above amounts must receive the prior written permission of the state credit union board.

3. A deductible may not exceed ten percent of a credit union's net worth.

CHAPTER 13-03-25

SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE AUDITS AND VERIFICATIONS

13-03-25-01. Definitions.

1. "Balance sheet audit" means the examination of a credit union's assets, liabilities, and equity under generally accepted auditing standards by an independent public accountant for the purpose of opining on the fairness of the presentation on the balance sheet. Credit unions required to file call reports consistent with GAAP should ensure the audited balance sheet is likewise prepared on a GAAP basis. The opinion under this type of engagement would not address the fairness of the presentation of the credit union's income statement, statement of changes in equity (including comprehensive income), or statement of cashflows.

2. "Compensated person" means any accounting or auditing professional, excluding a credit union employee, who is compensated for performing more than one supervisory committee audit or verification of members' accounts per calendar year, or both.

3. "Confirm" or "confirmation" refers to a written verification with a third-party (person or organization) pertaining to an account balance or condition. Examples of confirmation letters are bank/corporate credit union account confirmation, investment account confirmation, borrowing or line of credit confirmation, attorney letter confirmation, and member share/loan account confirmation.

4. "Financial statement audit" or "opinion audit" means an audit of the financial statements of a credit union performed in accordance with GAAS by an independent person who is licensed by the state. The objective of a financial statement audit is to express an opinion as to whether... those financial statements of the credit union present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and the results of its operations and its cashflows in conformity with GAAP, as defined herein.

4. "GAAP" means generally accepted accounting principles, which refers to the conventions, rules, and procedures which define accepted accounting practice. GAAP includes both broad general guidelines and detailed practices and procedures, provides a standard by which to measure financial statement presentations, and encompasses not only accounting principles and practices but also the methods of applying them.

5. "GAAS" means generally accepted auditing standards, which refers to the standards approved and adopted by the American institute of certified public accountants which apply when an independent, licensed certified public accountant audits financial statements. Auditing standards differ from auditing procedures in that "procedures" address acts to be performed, whereas "standards" measure the quality of the performance of those acts and the objectives to be achieved by use of the procedures undertaken. In addition, auditing standards address the auditor's professional judgment exercised in performing the audit and in preparing the report of the audit.

6. "Independent" means the impartiality necessary for the dependability of the compensated auditor's findings. Independence requires the exercise of fairness toward credit union officials, members, creditors, and others who may rely upon the report of a supervisory committee audit report.

7. "Internal control" means the process, established by the credit union's board of directors, officers, and employees designed to provide reasonable assurance of reliable financial reporting and safeguarding of assets against unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition.

8. "Materiality" refers to a statement, fact or item, which, giving full consideration to the surrounding circumstances as they exist at the time, it is of such a nature that its disclosure, or the method of treating it, would be likely to influence or to make a difference in the judgment and conduct of a reasonable person. Materiality should take into account ending balances as well as the volume of transactions in an account. Typically, balances or transaction volume greater than 5 percent of the credit union's net worth should be considered material.

9. "Reportable conditions" means a matter coming to the attention of the independent, compensated auditor which in the auditor's judgment represents a significant deficiency in the design or operation of the internal control structure of the credit union which could adversely affect its ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data consistent with the representations of management in the financial statements.

10. "Review" refers to the examination of Board minutes, policies and procedures, and a review of a sample portion of activities, rather than all of the activities.

11. "State-licensed person" means a certified public accountant or public accountant who is licensed by the state to perform accounting or auditing services for that credit union.

12. "Test" refers to procedures applied to the individual items that compose an account balance or class of transactions. The tests involve confirmation, inspection, or observation procedures to provide evidence about the recorded amount.

13-03-25-03. Audit responsibility of the supervisory committee.
1. Annual audit requirement. A credit union is required to obtain an annual supervisory committee audit or financial statement audit that occurs at least once every calendar year (period of performance) and must cover the period elapsed since the last audit period (period effectively covered).

2. Financial statement audit. Any credit union with assets greater than twenty-five million dollars as of its previous year-end call report must obtain an annual audit of its financial statements performed in accordance with GAAS by an independent person who is licensed to do so in this state. Any credit union with assets less than twenty-five million dollars may also choose this option. Prior to obtaining a financial statement audit, the credit union will make a good-faith attempt to obtain a copy of the peer review report of the auditing firm directly from the auditing firm to ensure the firm's auditing practices and procedures are in conformance with GAAS.

3. Supervisory committee alternative to financial statement audit. Any credit union with assets less than twenty-five million dollars, if not obtaining a financial statement audit, must obtain or perform either of the following options to a financial statement audit a supervisory committee audit.    b. Audit per supervisory committee guide. An audit performed by the supervisory committee, its internal auditor, or any other qualified person (such as a certified public accountant, public accountant, league auditor, credit union auditor consultant, former financial institutions examiner, etc.) in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the national credit union administration's supervisory committee guide. Qualified persons who are not state-licensed may not provide assurance services under this subsection. Must at a minimum document a review of:

      1) Board of Director minutes to determine whether there are any material changes to the credit union's activities or condition that are relevant to the areas to be reviewed in the audit

      2) Test and confirm material asset and liability accounts including:

         i. Loans

         ii. Cash on deposit

         iii. Investments

         v. Borrowings

      3) Test material equity, income, and expense accounts

      4) Test for unrecorded liabilities

      5) Review key internal controls including:

         i. Bank reconciliation procedures

         ii. Cash controls

         iii. Dormant account controls

         iv. Wire and ACH transfer controls
v. Loan approval and disbursement procedures

vi. Controls over accounts of employees and officials

vii. Other real estate owned viii. Foreclosed and repossessed assets

6) Test the mathematical accuracy of the allowance for loan and lease losses account and ensure the methodology is properly applied

13-03-25-05. Assistance from outside, compensated person.

A compensated auditor who performs a supervisory committee audit on behalf of a credit union may not be related by blood or marriage to any management employee, member of either the board of directors, the supervisory committee, or the credit committee, or loan officer of that credit union.

2. Engagement letter. The engagement of a compensated auditor to perform all or a portion of the scope of a financial statement audit or supervisory committee audit shall be evidenced by an engagement letter. In all cases, the engagement must be contracted directly with the supervisory committee. The engagement letter must be signed by the compensated auditor and acknowledged therein by the supervisory committee prior to commencement of the engagement.

3. Contents of letter. The engagement letter shall:

a. Specify the terms, conditions, and objections of the engagement;

b. Identify the basis of accounting to be used;

f. Specify a target date of delivery of the written reports, such target date not to exceed one hundred twenty days from date of calendar or fiscal yearend under audit (period covered), unless the supervisory committee obtains a waiver from the commissioner of the department of financial institutions with such delivery date enabling the credit union to meet its annual audit requirements;

g. Certify that department of financial institution staff or national credit union administration staff, or both, will be provided unconditional access to the complete set of original working papers, either at the offices of the credit union or at a mutually agreed-upon location, for purposes of inspections; and

h. Acknowledge that working papers shall be retained for a minimum of three years from the date of the written report.

4. Complete scope. If the engagement is to perform a supervisory committee guide audit intended to fully meet the requirements of subdivision b of subsection 3 of section 13-03-25-03, the engagement letter shall certify that the audit will address the complete scope of that engagement.

5. Exclusions from scope. If the engagement is to perform a supervisory committee guide audit which will exclude any item required by the applicable section, the engagement letter shall:

a. Identify the excluded items;

b. State that, because of the exclusions, the resulting audit will not, by itself, fulfill the scope of the supervisory committee audit; and

c. Caution that the supervisory committee will remain responsible for fulfilling the scope of a supervisory committee audit with respect to the excluded items.

LOAN WORKOUTS, LOAN MODIFICATIONS, AND NONACCURUAL POLICY

Section 13-03-28-01 Definitions

Section 13-03-28-02 Loan Workout Policy and Monitoring Requirements

Section 13-03-28-03 Past Due Status Workout Loans Including Troubled Debt Restructure Past Due Status

Section 13-03-28-04 Loan Nonaccrual Nonaccrual Policy and Procedures

Section 13-03-28-02. Loan workout policy and monitoring requirements.

1. The board and management shall adopt and adhere to an explicit written policy and standards that control the use of loan workouts, and establish controls to ensure the policy is consistently applied. These policies must:

a. Be commensurate with the size and complexity of the credit union;

b. Define eligibility requirements, under what conditions the credit union will consider a loan workout, including establishing limits on the number of times an individual loan may be modified;

c. Ensure credit union makes loan workout decisions based on the borrower’s renewed willingness and ability to repay the loan;

d. Establish sound controls to ensure loan workout actions are appropriately structured;

e. Prohibit additional advances to finance unpaid interest or credit union fees or commissions. This is also known as capitalizing interest, and must be prohibited by policy. Advances to cover third party fees such as appraisals or property taxes are permissible;

f. Either prohibit the financing of accrued interest into the loan principle also referred to as capitalizing interest or require a policy allowing for the capitalization of interest only if it is in the best interest of both the borrower and the credit union. If capitalizing of interest is allowed, the policy will require:

i. Compliance with all consumer compliance laws and regulations;

ii. Documentation showing the borrower’s ability to repay the debt.

iii. Provide written and accurate disclosures consistent with consumer compliance laws.

iv. Appropriate accounting and reporting of the loans accrual and delinquency status.

v. Consideration on how to apply modifications consistently.

vi. Consideration for options to allow missed payments to be made at the end of a loan to limit delinquency.

vii. Safeguards such as additional board reporting to avoid masking risk in the loan portfolio.

viii. Procedures to avoid delaying loss recognition resulting in an inaccurate allowance for loan and lease losses account or loan valuations.

ix. Procedures to avoid overstating income or credit union net worth.

x. Effective internal controls.

g. Require documentation that demonstrates the borrower is willing and able to repay the loan; and

h. Require workout loans to be accurately classified; for commercial loans be risk rated with the credit union’s credit grading system; be consistent with accepted industry and regulatory guidance, including federal financial institutions examination council's uniform retail classification and account management policy; and accurately identify loans for impairment testing consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

2. Loan policy must require documented workout arrangements that consider and balance the best interests of both the borrower and the credit union.

3. Management and the board of directors shall implement comprehensive and effective risk management and internal controls. This must include:

a. Thresholds based on aggregate volume of loan workout activity which trigger enhanced reporting to the board of directors;

b. Monitoring of total loan classifications in relation to the credit union’s total reserves;

c. A written charge-off policy that it is consistently applied and consistent with industry standards; and

d. A process capable of identifying, documenting, and aggregating any loan that is re-aged, extended, deferred, renewed, or rewritten, including the frequency and extent such action has been taken, and aggregate these loans by loan type.
