State Council on Developmental Disabilities to meet March 11 in Bismarck

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota State Council on Developmental Disabilities will hold its next quarterly meeting on Wed., March 11, 2009, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Bank of North Dakota, 1200 Memorial Highway, in Bismarck. The meeting is open to the public.

Meeting agenda items include: financial report, executive director's report, NACDD report, developmental disabilities legislative update, North Dakota Developmental Disabilities Network report, federal audit update, and review of the 2010 Request for Proposal and Grant Application form, and other miscellaneous business.

The council works to promote choice, independence, productivity and inclusion for North Dakotans with developmental disabilities, and actively supports projects and activities that maximize opportunities for consumers and families in these areas.

Individuals who need special accommodations to attend should contact Bonnie at 701-328-1980 or broth@nd.gov. For information about the council, visit the Governor's Web site at <http://governor.nd.gov/boards/> or contact the council's Executive Director Andrea Peña at 701-328-4847 or apena@nd.gov.
