ND Department of Human Services' Vocational Rehabilitation Program Honors Employees

MANDAN, ND – The North Dakota Department of Human Services' Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) program recently honored a Grand Forks employee for his outstanding work in assisting North Dakotans with disabilities to obtain employment. The award was presented at the department's annual Vocational Rehabilitation awards banquet and training conference.

Jerry Severson was the recipient of the Career Achievement Award - 100 Club. This award is based on the number of individuals placed into employment over the life of a counselor's career.

Severson was also honored as an outgoing member of the Success in Leadership program. The purpose of the Success in Leadership program is to challenge individuals by expanding their knowledge, skills and abilities to become a positive force of change in the field of Vocational Rehabilitation in North Dakota.

North Dakota Vocational Rehabilitation is a division of the North Department of Human Services. Its mission is to assist individuals with disabilities to maximize their employment opportunities and to assist businesses owners and employers in finding solutions to disability-related issues.

Information about Vocational Rehabilitation services is on the Web at www.nd.gov/dhs/rcs/index.html and is also available by calling 701-328-8950, toll free 800-755-2745, or TTY 701-328-8968.
