Governor's Committee on Aging to Meet June 14 in Jamestown

BISMARCK, N.D. – The Governor's Committee on Aging will meet Fri., June 14, 2013, in Jamestown to discuss issues impacting older adults and the services and programs that help them. The meeting is from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at James River Senior Center at Legacy Place (old Jamestown Hospital), 419 Fifth St. N.E., and is open to the public.

Agenda items include legislative updates on various topics including home and community-based services, long-term care, guardianship and petitioning, mandatory reporting of elder abuse, and Vulnerable Adult Protective Services. Committee members will also hear discussion on the committee's budget, membership, and work plan for 2013. There will also be a recap of the Governor's Committee on Aging Forums held earlier this year in Minot, Oakes, and Valley City, as well as the statewide uniform nutrition forum. A complete agenda is online at www.nd.gov/dhs/info/publicnotice/index.html.

Individuals with disabilities who need accommodations can contact Diane Sundby at 701-328-4601, toll free 855-462-5465, ND Relay TTY 800-366-6888 or dsundby@nd.gov.

The Governor's Committee on Aging acts as an advisory body for the N.D. Department of Human Services' Aging Services Division, sponsors community forums, and works to achieve goals related to the needs of older individuals.

Committee information is online at www.nd.gov/dhs/services/adultsaging/gcoa.html, or by contacting Jan Engan, Aging Services Division Director, N.D. Department of Human Services, at 701-328-4601, toll free 855-462-5465 or ND Relay TTY 800-366-6888.
