Northeast Human Service Center hosts community coordination meeting

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota Department of Human Services' Northeast Human Service Center is hosting a community coordination meeting on Monday, Dec. 8, 2014, at 10 a.m. CST, in conference room 5D at the center on 151 S. Fourth St., in Grand Forks.

Community partners who provide health and human services to area residents or who work with people receiving counseling, treatment, support, case management services, or other services through the regional human service center are encouraged to attend. The meeting is open to the public.

Individuals who need accommodations to participate in the meeting can contact Randy Slavens at 701-795-3010, toll-free 888-256-6742, ND Relay TTY 800-366-6888, or rslavens@nd.gov.

Northeast Human Service Center employs about 140 individuals and serves residents of Grand Forks, Nelson, Pembina, and Walsh counties. Staff members provide counseling and other mental health and substance abuse treatment services, disability services, vulnerable adult protective services, vocational rehabilitation services, and other human services directly or in partnerships with county social services and other agencies.
