Williston Child Support office closed today due to smoke damage

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota Department of Human Services' regional child support office in Williston will remain closed today, Thursday, July 13, due to smoke damage from a nearby fire in downtown Williston on Monday. The child support office is located at 202 Main St., lower level.

Child support employees are available to assist customers by e-mail and telephone. Customers can contact the Williston office at willistoncse@nd.gov, 701-774-7940 or toll-free 1-800-231-4255. Customers can also conduct normal business on the secure website at www.childsupportnd.com.

Child Support officials will reopen the office once cleanup is complete.
