ND Behavioral Health Planning Council postpones April 28 meeting

BISMARCK, N.D. – The North Dakota Behavioral Health Planning Council has postponed its video conference meeting scheduled for Wednesday, April 28 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., CT. The meeting will be rescheduled at a later date.

The council is a citizen advisory group that includes people with lived experience and other stakeholders.

The governor appoints council members who represent people with first-hand knowledge of behavioral health services, their family members, other advocates, agencies, human service zone offices (formerly called county social service offices) and public and private behavioral health service providers. Council information is available at www.nd.gov/dhs/services/mentalhealth/ndmhpc/.
