NEWS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE | June 1, 2022

Agency educates about programs that can pay family members to assist individuals with physical disabilities

BISMARCK, N.D. – When loved ones need support to continue living at home in the community, family members often pitch in to provide needed help. Did you know that in North Dakota, a spouse or other adult family member can be paid for providing authorized services, which enable persons with physical disabilities who reside in the same household with them to live at home in the community?

Individuals can learn more about family personal care and family home care services by participating by phone or online in a June 2 webinar, from 12 to 12:30 p.m. CT. North Dakota Department of Human Services’ Adult and Aging Services team members will provide an overview of the services, general eligibility requirements and funding information.

Family personal care and family home care services are provided by a spouse or other family member who is enrolled as a qualified service provider. The care provided can include help with bathing, dressing, eating and other personal needs.

To learn more, individuals can join the webinar by phone at 701-328-0950, Conference ID 676 451 010#. Details about joining online via mobile device or computer can be found in the event flyer posted online at www.nd.gov/dhs/services/adultsaging/.

Details about other upcoming webinars, including the June 23 webinar on supported employment, transitional living and adult residential services, as well as recordings of past informational webinars are available on the division’s webpage at www.nd.gov/dhs/services/adultsaging/.

To find long-term services and support, contact North Dakota’s Aging and Disability Resource Link toll-free at 855-462-5465, 711 (TTY), email carechoice@nd.gov, or apply for services online at https://carechoice.nd.assistguide.net/.

# #

MEDIA CONTACTS:

Heather Steffl     |     701-328-4933                    LuWanna Lawrence     |     701-328-1892
hsteffl@nd.gov                                                     lklawrence@nd.gov