

Who is eligible?

Any woman residing in North Dakota who is pregnant or who thinks she may be pregnant is eligible for these services.

What help is available?

The North Dakota Department of Human Services can offer assistance for alternatives to abortion. Free services may include:

- Pregnancy testing
- Counseling
- Pre-natal and parenting education
- Referrals

All services will be handled in a confidential manner, and a woman's identity will not be revealed. Women will be asked to give their birth date and the last four digits of their social security number so the department can gather basic non-identifying data.

A variety of organizations provide these services across the state. A list of approved providers by location is printed on this brochure.

Non-discrimination Policy

An approved provider may not discriminate against a client.

The North Dakota Department of Human Services makes available all services and assistance without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, disability or status with respect to marriage or public assistance, in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Age Discrimination Act, the Americans With Disabilities Act, and the North Dakota Human Rights Act.

Individuals needing accommodation or who have questions or complaints regarding the provision of services according to these acts may contact the Civil Rights Officer, North Dakota Department of Human Services, Judicial Wing, State Capitol, or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Civil Rights, Region VIII, Federal Office Building, 1961 Stout St, Denver, CO 80294 (303-844-2028 voice or 303-844-3439 TTY).
