Community-based behavioral health program designed to increase recovery support services to individuals involved with the criminal justice system.

Information for relatives and kinship caregivers who provide care and protection when a child cannot remain in their home.

Support for parents with promoting the behavioral health needs of their children by providing a wide variety of tools and resources to support them in creating a safe environment for their children.

Designed to meet the needs of individuals through Care Coordination, Peer Support and Recovery Services, helping pregnant women, families, caregivers, and individuals by providing a one-stop entry point for needed services, such as housing, employment, financial, parenting, physical health, and community connections.

It is natural to feel anxiety and worry during this pandemic. Now more than ever we all can take time to take care of our own behavioral health and look out for those most vulnerable in our community. Help is Here offers a link to a wide variety of resources, from learning some new self-care practices to finding behavioral health treatment options, to economic assistance options.

An array of services and supports for Medicaid members with qualifying behavioral health conditions which interfere with their ability to live in the community.

To apply for Medicaid and other health coverage programs, food assistance, heating assistance and other public assistance programs.
If you don't know where to begin, start here. Call 1.844.44.TALK2 and speak to a trained peer support specialist to chat and receive support with addiction for yourself or someone you know.

Provides an accessible, seamless network of support for Service Members, Veterans, Families, and Survivors.

Provides a range of behavioral health care for individuals with mental illness and substance use disorders.

Provides services statewide through the Regional Human Service Centers for people with serious mental illness experiencing homelessness.

Most people who struggle with thoughts of suicide get better. Help and hope begins with talking about it. Call the Suicide Prevention LIFELINE anytime at 1.800.273.TALK(8255).

Free, confidential services available to anyone for listening and support, referrals to resources/help and crisis intervention. The 211 help line is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Peer Support Specialists bring hope by sharing their experiences and promoting a sense of belong. If you would like to learn more about peer support please reach out to peersupport@nd.gov

Supports eligible individuals in their personal recovery by reducing financial barriers in accessing substance use disorder treatment and recovery services.
The Gamblers Choice program is designed to help you overcome gambling addiction and resolve related emotional, relationship and financial issues. Counselors work with both you and your family to resolve problems created by a gambling addiction.

If you are a resident of North Dakota and have experienced a brain injury, reach out to the brain injury network at info@ndbin.org for additional assistance and resources, or call 855-866-1884.