| Wednesday, April 6, 2022 | 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. (central) | • Overview of the law
• Reporting elements
• Supports for professional development selection |
| Tuesday, April 19, 2022 | 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. (central) | • Review the law
• Reporting process |
| Thursday, April 28, 2022 | 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. (central) | • Review the law
• Reviewing local curriculum and assessment |

All webinars will be recorded and available on the NDDPI website.
What does the law require?

- Professional Development
  - Training for K-3 principals and teachers

- Curriculum
  - Utilize scientifically-based instructional materials and approaches

- Assessment
  - Processes, including assessments and resources, to diagnose, monitor, and inform reading instruction that meets each child’s unique needs
Who Reports?

Each K-3 building will submit a report to the STARS system by October 1, 2022

Special Education Units with staff contracted to serving K-3 buildings will submit the report for those employees. Staff contracted through the district will be reported by the building.
Reporting Item #1 Professional Development
NDCC 15.1-21-12.1

15.1-21-12.1. Reading curriculum - Content - Professional development - Reports to legislative management.

1. Beginning July 1, 2022, each school district and nonpublic school shall ensure the portion of its curriculum which is related to reading:
   a. Is scientifically based, evidence based, and research based;
   b. Focuses on:
      (1) Phonemic awareness;
      (2) Phonics;
      (3) Fluency;
      (4) Vocabulary; and
      (5) Comprehension; and
   c. Uses systematic direct instruction for students in kindergarten through grade three to ensure all students obtain necessary early reading skills.

2. Before the 2022-23 school year, each teacher who teaches kindergarten through grade three at a school district or nonpublic school, and each principal of a public or nonpublic school with kindergarten through grade three, shall attend teacher-approved, professional development training that includes training in the topics provided under subsection 1.
Who do you report on?

Principals – This includes principals and assistant principals.

K-3 Teachers of reading – Any teacher responsible for reading instruction or intervention. This includes classroom, special education, reading specialist roles, EL, and any others with reading instruction assignments.

K-3 teachers of other content (content specialists) – This includes any teacher of K-3 students in the building with an assignment that does not include direct reading instruction. These are content specialists such as music, art, physical education, or other instruction.
Deadline
Beginning of 2022-23 school year

Completed - Any training that is finished by October 1, 2022.

Ongoing - Any training in which individuals are currently registered and already attending which requires time beyond the reporting date to complete.

Not trained - Any training not begun by Oct. 1. NOTE: If a school has a training plan which has not begun, it is still considered “not trained.” However, a notation can be made in the training and dates boxes of the planned training dates for “not trained” individuals.
Reading Curriculum Content and Professional Development

Each elementary building will submit a report.
