TITLE I
TARGETED ASSISTANCE
SAMPLE MONITORING
DOCUMENTATION
TA01–TA14

2022-2023
Nationally, Title I receives a significant amount of funds from the federal government. Federal regulations require the state to monitor school districts accepting federal funds. State educational agencies must ensure districts and schools are held accountable to regulations outlined in the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

The purpose of this document is to assist districts and schools as they complete the Federal Title Programs monitoring process. This document outlines details on the requirement, the necessary documentation, special alerts to consider, and additional resources available. Below is a summary of each category.

“Requirements” Section
This section outlines the specific requirements defined by federal and state law to assist schools in understanding the requirements.

“Documentation” Section
This section explains the type of documentation necessary to meet each monitoring requirement adequately.

"Alerts” Section
This section offers alerts to note regarding the requirement or outlines common issues regarding the submission or documentation.

“Resources” Section
This section outlines current resources available on the particular requirement.
Section 1112 of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) requires that, at the beginning of the school year, Title I schools must notify parents that they have the right to request the professional qualifications of the teaching staff at the school. Specifically, they have the right to know if a teacher meets state licensing requirements for the grade/subject they teach, if they are teaching under a provisional license, and what major or other graduate certification they hold.

This requirement also pertains to aides/paraprofessionals. Schools must notify parents that they have the right to know the qualifications of aides/paraprofessionals working with their children.

A teacher aide/paraprofessional assists teachers and students under the direction of a professional teacher. The USED guidance defines an aide/paraprofessional as an employee who provides instructional support by reinforcing a teacher’s effect in the classroom in a program supported with Title I, Part A funds. Listed below are specific requirements to keep in mind regarding the use of an aide/paraprofessional.

- All instructional aides/paraprofessionals in a schoolwide setting must hold a high school diploma/GED and have met one of the following requirements documented by a Paraprofessional Certificate of Completion:
  1. Completed at least two years of study at an institution of higher education,
  2. Obtained an associate’s or higher degree, or
  3. Met a rigorous standard of quality, which includes an assessment of math, reading, and writing.

The law also requires that the notice be provided to parents in an understandable, uniform format. Most schools do this through an easy-to-read chart, as outlined in the sample.

Title I schools must notify parents of the children impacted by this instruction after four weeks of instruction by a teacher who is not highly qualified. This notification should be handled in a timely, professional manner. This, too, is outlined in Section 1112 of ESSA.

Documentation

Documentation includes the parent notification and a compiled list of the qualifications of all teachers and paraprofessionals.

Sample letters and documentation tables regarding this requirement are available on the Office of Educational Equity & Support website. Please see the resources section for further details.

Alerts

After four weeks of instruction by a teacher who is not highly qualified, Title I schools are obligated to notify parents of the children impacted by this instruction. This notification should be handled in a timely, professional manner. This, too, is outlined in Section 1112 of ESSA.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Our school receives federal funds for Title I programs that are part of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). Under ESSA, you have the right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of your child’s classroom teacher(s).

As always, we want to keep our parents informed on the quality education we deliver, and sharing staff qualifications is an excellent way to illustrate our commitment to our students. The staff at any school defines the education environment, and we are devoted to finding the best quality teachers and paraprofessionals to work with your children to ensure our school is a place where they can succeed.

Below is a table that lists the teaching staff at our school, their current position, degree major, any other graduate degree, certification or endorsement, years of teaching experience, and whether or not they meet the state qualifications and licensing requirements.

Below is a list of the paraprofessionals who work at our school and their qualifications. If your child receives services in our Title I program, these paraprofessionals may assist your child as they work with our Title I teacher. In addition, if a teacher who is not highly qualified for four or more consecutive weeks teaches your child at any time during the school year, you will receive timely notice from the school.

Again, thank you for your inquiry. Please continue to contact me at any time if you have questions.

Sincerely,
(Administration)
Dear Parent or Guardian:

Our district’s goal is to provide your child the best education possible by employing quality teachers and staff, providing challenging curriculum and materials, monitoring each student’s academic achievement, and communicating regularly with parents. Under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), teachers must meet certain requirements if teaching for four or more consecutive weeks. They must have North Dakota licensure and demonstrate competency in the subject matter for the grade level(s) and subjects they teach. These skills are necessary to help every child attain high academic and behavioral standards.

Our district is working to ensure all students are taught by teachers who meet the ESSA requirements. When necessary, they assist employed teachers in obtaining the required certification and skills for their positions. This notice is to keep you informed regarding the status of your child’s teacher(s).

Currently, one of our teachers, ______________________, is authorized to teach in North Dakota but has not yet completed the process for complying with ESSA requirements and taught your child for four or more consecutive weeks in the following subject(s):

Teacher qualification statutes in this subject area:

_____ Teacher is currently teaching under an emergency or other provisional status.

_____ Teacher is currently involved in training and coursework to attain North Dakota licensing requirements and to continue learning curriculum and instruction strategies related to their grade level(s) and subject assignment(s).

It is your right to request further information regarding the qualifications of your child’s teacher(s). If you wish to request such information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

(Administration)
Submissions TA02-TA03 – Student Selection

Requirement

Under ESSA section 1115(c), a general requirement is outlined that the district must identify eligible children identified by the school as failing, or most at risk of failing, to meet the challenging State academic standards based on multiple, educationally related, objective criteria established by the district and supplemented by the school. In a targeted assistance program, Title I law requires a selection process to determine which students are eligible for Title I services. The selection process for Title I students must be based on objective, uniformly applied criteria given to all students at each grade level in all subject areas in which the students are being served (e.g., reading, math, etc.). This information must be documented on a student selection worksheet.

Each school has the authority to develop the criteria used to determine Title I student selection. The criteria should be designed to identify disadvantaged students most in need of receiving additional supplemental assistance.

Schools must maintain a worksheet to compare the criteria gathered for each student to determine who will receive Title I services. After collecting all data, students must be ranked in priority order according to the greatest need for services. If you can serve all students selected for Title I services, you should write that information on your student selection worksheet. The worksheet should clearly list each of the criteria used to determine eligibility.

Children who are economically disadvantaged, children with disabilities, English learners, migrant students, homeless children, and neglected or delinquent children are eligible for services on the same basis as all other students. Providing Title I services to these students is acceptable if their selection is based on the same criteria as everyone else. Also, if a new student moves into the district, they must be selected and ranked using the same criteria as the other students. Even if they received Title I services in another school, they must still meet the student selection criteria at your school before receiving Title I services.

Title I law requires local school districts to assume the cost and responsibility of identifying students in need of Title I services. Schools cannot use Title I funds to test all students to identify Title I students. Schools testing all students with the NDSA, the NWEA (MAPS), or any other assessments must use state, local, or other federal funds for this expenditure, not Title I funds.

Typically, Title I funds are used for student services during the regular school day to provide direct, remedial services to at-risk students. However, some school districts choose to use their funds to provide extended day services to students. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Title I Summer School Programming
- Title I Preschool Programming
- Title I Before or After School Programming
- Title I Saturday School Programming
- Title I EL Programming
- Title I Homeless Programming
- Title I N&D Programming

When school districts choose to use additional Title I funding to supplement their current Title I program, the Division of Student Support & Innovation is required to monitor these initiatives.

XYZ Public School District
Student Selection Summary

At the XYZ Public School District, we review our student selection process annually during our spring annual review meeting. After this meeting, we conduct our selection process for the subsequent school year. As new students enroll in the school, we add them to the selection process. Students are continually added to the student selection process throughout the school year.

Our student selection process outlines which students are most in need of services. By participating in the selection process, we determine which students receive services and which do not.

We can ensure that students are selected on the uniform, objective criterion consistent across particular grade levels. Subjective criteria are only considered in grades K-2. In no instance are students determined eligible based solely on parent or teacher referral.

Students are ranked according to priority, and those with the highest priority make up the Title I teacher’s caseload. Only those students that rank a 3 or higher receive Title I services.

Title I services are provided to students 30 minutes a day, three times a week.
The criteria established for the XYZ Public School District student selection process varies for each grade level. Students are ranked in priority order based on the following criterion:

Kindergarten
- Reading – STAR early literacy scores, letter recognition, letter sounds
- Math – Kindergarten readiness mathematics assessment, number recognition, shape recognition

Grade 1
- Reading – STAR early literacy scores, Gates – MacGinitie reading Score, Dolch sight words
- Math – Place value, addition and subtraction tables, tells time (nearest hour and half hour)

Grade 2
- Reading – Writing a basic sentence using proper mechanics and grammar, oral reading fluency, NWEA reading assessment
- Math – Money (identifies penny, nickel, dime, quarter), addition and subtraction of two-digit numbers, NWEA math assessment

Grade 3
- Reading – Last theme test in reading, vowel sounds (short and long), NWEA reading assessment
- Math – Fractions (identifies basic fractions), basic geometry (shapes, angles, coordinates), NWEA math assessment

Grade 4
- Reading – Proper sentence and paragraph structure, classroom reading assessment, NWEA reading assessment
- Math – Classroom math assessment, STAR math assessment, NWEA math assessment

Grade 5

- Math – Classroom math assessment, NWEA math assessment, classroom grades

Grade 6
- Reading – NWEA reading assessment, classroom reading assessment, classroom grades
- Math – Classroom math assessment, NWEA math assessment, classroom grades

Teacher referral is considered when conducting the selection process; however, there are three criteria a student must meet before teacher referral impacts whether or not the student receives Title I services. Enclosed you will find a copy of our teacher referral form.

TITLE I, PART A TARGETED ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

School Mission

School Vision

NEEDS ASSESSMENT (The comprehensive needs assessment directs a building to collect and analyze student data. This process identifies the strengths and weaknesses impacting student performance. It also highlights the strengths and needs of the entire program. Schools with targeted assistance programs should emphasize strategies that help learners who have not yet met grade-level standards.)

[Describe procedures and best practices to support your comprehensive plan]

IDENTIFICATION OF STUDENTS (Title I Targeted Assistance Programs must select students based on the criteria they establish. Under the law, the targeted assistance program is to provide services to students identified as having the greatest need for assistance. The criteria for identifying students must be objective, educationally related, and include multiple measures.)

[Describe procedures to support programs, activities, and courses to ensure mastery of academic standards]

PRACTICES AND STRATEGIES (Identify the practices and strategies of your school’s targeted assistance program. Under the law, the targeted assistance program provides services to students with the greatest need for special assistance. The law requires programs to review the progress of students served in targeted assistance and revise the program, if needed, to enable students to meet state standards.)

[Describe instructional strategies, programs, and services to support best practices that strengthen the academic program]

COORDINATION AND TRANSITIONS (The Title I program should be coordinated with the school’s overall education program. ESSA emphasizes that targeted assistance programs should minimize the removal of children from the regular classroom during regular core instruction when providing additional instruction through Title I, Part A. Schools should develop the targeted assistance program in coordination with core instruction, extended day offerings, English learner programs, special education, career and technical education, and others.)

[Describe the procedures to support the transition between early childhood and elementary grades or other grade spans in the Title I program]

PARENT & FAMILY ENGAGEMENT (Plan for the strategies your school will use to engage parents and families of students served by the Targeted Assistance program. Parents, families, and community members provide excellent partners in helping students meet the state’s challenging academic standards. The school’s parent and family engagement efforts may also include services supporting family literacy.)

[Describe policies and procedures to support parent and family engagement which aligns with targeted assistance practices and strategies]

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (Title I allows for the professional development of teachers, principals, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, and, if appropriate, specialized support personnel and other personnel who work with eligible students in the program or the regular education program serving Title I eligible students.)

[Describe procedures to support the professional development needs of your targeted school staff]

Submissions T04 & TA05 – Notification of Eligible Students

Requirement

In a targeted assistance program, Title I law requires only students who are determined eligible for Title I services are provided such services (ESSA Sec 1115, 1117). The district must have a process in place to identify eligible students, provide services to students equitably based on educational needs, and notify parents and families in a timely manner.

Eligible children are children identified by the school as failing, or most at risk of failing, to meet the challenging State academic standards based on multiple, educationally related, objective criteria established by the district and supplemented by the school, except that children from preschool through grade 2 shall be selected solely based on criteria, including objective criteria, established by the district and supplemented by the school.

After a school has determined which students are eligible for Title I services, a notification informing parents of their child’s eligibility must be sent.

Schools may word the letter to indicate that Title I services will be provided whether or not the signed eligibility letter is returned to the school by the parents. However, if a parent refuses Title I services for their child, the parent’s signature rejecting these services must be kept on file.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child, _____________________________, has been selected to receive additional instruction through the XYZ Public School District’s Title I program.

The goal of our Title I program is to assist your child in developing and expanding the reading, language arts, and math skills taught in the classroom. Please note that these services are provided in addition to the regular instruction your child receives in the classroom. A highly qualified teacher provides Title I services through one-on-one or small-group instruction.

Please contact the school if you have any questions regarding your child’s participation in the Title I program.

Sincerely,

XYZ Public School District Title I Teacher
XYZ Public School District Building Principal

Your child will immediately begin receiving Title I services. If you would like to decline services, please indicate so by signing and returning the bottom portion of this notification letter.

☐ No, I decline Title I services for my child.

Parent/Guardian Signature  Date

Please note: Unless the school receives your signature declining services, your child will immediately receive Title I services.
This year, the XYZ Public School District has not had any parents or guardians reject Title I services; however, if a parent or guardian does reject services, signatures are obtained and kept on file.

If parents request removal from Title I services after services have already begun, the parent completes the following form.

XYZ Public School District
Title I Parent Request of Removal

Based on the XYZ Public School District’s student selection process, my child, _________________, is eligible to receive Title I services through the district’s Title I program.

However, as the parent/guardian, I request to have my child removed from the Title I program.

Submission TA06 – Document Communication with Classroom Teachers

Requirement
Title I teachers must document communication with the classroom teachers so that what is being taught during Title I services is directly aligned with the work being done in the classroom. This is also a good time for the Title I teacher to remind classroom teachers that it is the Title I teacher's responsibility to supplement or enhance classroom instruction, not supplant or replace it.

Documentation
Documentation to meet this requirement varies across the state. Below is a list of ideas on how schools can document this requirement.

- Lesson Plans – Title I teachers can request lesson plans from cooperating teachers to assist in aligning, pre-teaching, and re-teaching subjects and content being taught in the regular classroom.
- Skills this Week – Title I teachers can request that classroom teachers highlight the main skills they will be teaching to the class in the upcoming week so the Title I teachers can align the curriculum accordingly. Samples are provided on the resources website listed below.
- Communication Form – Narrative communication forms can be completed by classroom teachers encompassing the skills and themes they will teach. Samples are provided on the resources website listed below.
- Reteach/Reinforce – Classroom teachers can outline specific skills for specific students that they would like Title I services to reteach or reinforce with the student. Samples are provided on the resources website listed below.

Alerts
Many North Dakota schools are rural and close-knit in nature. Often informal communication occurs between staff throughout the day in the hall, lunchroom, staff lounge, etc. Informal communication cannot be used as documentation to meet this requirement unless the Title I teacher keeps a log of informal communication incidents and the results of the communication.

Submission TA07 – Annual Meeting to Inform about Title I (held in fall)

Requirement

In the fall of each year, Title I programs are required to host a meeting for parents to explain what the Title I program is and how parents can become involved in the Title I program. (This is different from the Annual Review meeting held in the spring, which is also a requirement). At this meeting, the following issues must be addressed:

- Explain their school’s participation in Title I and targeted assistance requirements.
- Explain what participation in Title I programming means, including:
  - A description and explanation of the school’s curriculum;
  - Information on the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress; and
  - Information on the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
- Explain the district parent and family engagement policy, school parent and family engagement policy, and school-parent compact.
- Explain the right of parents to become involved in the school’s programs and ways to do so.
- Explain that parents have the right to request opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and participate, as appropriate, in decisions about their children's education. The school must respond to any such requests as soon as practicably possible.

To keep parents informed, schools must invite all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs and encourage them to attend. In a targeted assistance program, only parents with children participating in Title I should be invited. Schools must also offer a flexible number of additional parental engagement meetings, such as in the morning or evening so that as many parents as possible can attend.

You must be able to document this meeting with minutes, agendas, sign-in sheets, etc. You may want to do more than the law requires for this meeting, especially if you often have problems with attendance.

Below are a few things to keep in mind regarding the Annual Parent Meeting:

- This can be an introduction to the Title I program, a workshop, a welcome night, etc.; the format is up to you. Preferably, this meeting occurs at the beginning (in the fall) of the school year.
- This meeting, whatever form it takes, must be documented with minutes.
- Is there two-way communication at this meeting, or is it the teacher/administrator giving information to parents about the program?
- Do you engage and involve parents in the agenda? Do you try to get their ideas on what this meeting should involve?

Submission TA08 – Opportunities to Train Parents and Families

Requirement

The Title I program should provide opportunities for training parents and families to become partners with the school in promoting the education of the child at school and at home. In addition, programs should provide information about methods that can be used at home to complement the child’s instruction.

This requirement could be documented by parent training sessions or workshops, copies of handouts and/or newsletters distributed to parents and families, and examples of information exchanged at parent-teacher conferences.

Documentation

Documentation to meet this requirement varies across the state. Below is a list of ideas on how schools can document this requirement.

- Newsletters – Title I programs can document their compliance with this requirement by submitting copies of newsletters disseminated to parents. Be sure to include the dates of when this information was shared with parents.
- Mailings – Title I programs can document this requirement by submitting copies of handouts, flyers, homework tips, and other information shared with parents during the school year. Be sure to include the dates of when this information was shared with parents.
- Meeting Minutes and Agendas – Some Title I programs offer training nights or events for parents. These training opportunities can be documented by meeting minutes, agendas, or attendance sheets.
- Summaries – Some Title I programs provide a summative format to meet this requirement. For this, they summarize each of the resources shared with parents, where the resources were obtained, the method of dissemination, and the date of dissemination.

Alerts

Schools are encouraged to utilize the six different types of parent and family engagement, as outlined by Dr. Joyce Epstein of John Hopkins University.

- Parenting: Helping all families establish a home environment to support children as students.
- Communicating: Designing effective forms of school-to-home and home-to-school communication about school programs and children’s progress.
- Volunteering: Recruiting and organizing parental help and support.
- Learning at Home: Providing information and ideas to families about how to help children at home with homework and other curriculum-related activities.
- Decision Making: Including parents in the school’s decisions and developing parent leaders and representatives.
- Collaborating with Community: Identifying and integrating resources and services from the community to strengthen school programs, family practices, and student learning and development.

This compact is part of the School Parent and Family Engagement Policy. The school-family compact cannot just be a verbal agreement. You must have a copy on file and documentation of how it was distributed. Signatures on the compact are optional.

Title I Parent and Family Engagement
Each school receiving funds under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) must develop a written school-parent compact jointly with parents for all children participating in Title I activities, services, and programs. That compact is part of the school’s written parental involvement policy developed by the school and parents. The compact must outline how parents, the school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and how the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state’s high standards.

The XYZ Public School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I agree that this compact outlines how they will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and how the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State’s high standards. This school-family compact is in effect during the 20XX-20XX school year.

REQUIRED SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT PROVISIONS

School Responsibilities — The XYZ Public School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the state’s student academic achievement standards as follows:

   The XYZ Public School will ensure that all students know and work toward achieving the state standards. This will be accomplished by providing a challenging curriculum taught with evidence-based practices.

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed regarding the individual child’s achievement. Specifically, these conferences will be held:

   Conferences will be held during the regularly held fall and spring parent-teacher conferences and at a separate parent meeting in the fall of the school year.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children’s progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

   Progress reports are sent home with student report cards at the end of the four nine-week grading periods. Parents with Internet access can access their child’s progress through PowerSchool.

4. Provide parents with reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

   In addition to the regularly scheduled parent-teacher conferences, staff will be available for parents before school and after school on a daily basis. Parents will also be able to access staff by telephone and email.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

   Administrators and teachers welcome parents to visit their children’s classrooms during the school year. Parents have been invited to assist in classroom lessons and activities. Parents are welcome to volunteer to help with special projects and activities.

Parent Responsibilities — We, as parents, will support our children’s learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Monitoring the amount of television my child watches.
- Volunteering in my child’s classroom.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child’s education.
- Promoting positive use of my child’s extracurricular time.
• Staying informed about my child’s education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district received either by my child or by mail and responding as appropriate.
Submission TA10 – Annual Assessment of Parent and Family Engagement

Requirement
At the end of each school year, the Title I program must assess the engagement of parents and families in the Title I program. This assessment method must be documented so that it is available for review. Often, Title I teachers/coordinators choose to meet this requirement by administering a survey to Title I parents asking them to review the parental and family engagement plan, share how effective and realistic the plan was in its implementation, and offer suggestions for improvement.

Please note that you do not have to use a survey to meet this requirement of an Annual Assessment of Parent and Family Engagement. This is just the most common method that is used. Other ideas for this requirement could be having an end-of-the-year meeting to assess the program with parents/families or calling parents at the end of the year and asking assessment questions. Whatever method you use, please remember that you must somehow document that the assessment took place.

Submission TA11 – Title I Progress Report/Title I Report Card

Requirement
It is up to the Title I teacher to monitor progress in all the grades they serve. A review of each Title I student’s progress is conducted to assess whether or not students are making adequate progress through Title I services. More than one assessment criteria should be used to measure student progress. Title I teachers must track the progress of all students served in the Title I program. It is also important to document the results of these assessments.

Please note:
- More than one assessment must be used to record the progress of all Title I students in each subject in which they receive Title I services (e.g., three assessments in reading; two assessments in math).
- These assessments may be objective or subjective. For example, the Title I teacher could use narrative progress reports as one assessment criterion.
- A portfolio must be maintained on each Title I student, documenting each child’s progress and showing the multiple assessments used.
- The assessments must be given to each student at least twice a year, preferably more often.
- Different assessment tools can be used at each grade level.
- Title I teachers are required to use more than one assessment measure in reading, and if serving students in math, more than one math assessment measure.
- Title I teachers must provide parents of all Title I students with their child’s assessment results, minimally twice a year.
- The Title I assessment results are shared with parents in a written format, referred to as the Title I Report Card or Title I Progress Report.

Submissions TA12 & TA13 – Annual Review Meeting to Evaluate Title I Program and Notification of Results

Requirement

Each year Title I programs are required to hold an annual review consisting of a formal meeting and then send correspondence of the results of this meeting to participating Title I parents. It is recommended that this meeting be held in the spring of the school year. The purpose of this meeting is to review all the components of the Title I program. For a targeted assistance program, items included for discussion in the annual review should include the following:

- Student selection process
- Professional development for Title I personnel
- District and school parent and family engagement policy
- School-family compact
- Review of annual assessment on parent and family engagement (e.g., survey)
- Communication between Title I teachers and classroom teachers
- Title I assessment methods
- Methods of Title I services (in-class, pull-out, before/after school, etc.)
- Curriculum
- Other items important to the operation of the Title I program (e.g., Title I budget)

Title I teacher(s), Title I aide(s)/paraprofessional(s), an administrator, and several classroom teachers, as well as any other interested/involved staff members, typically attend the annual review meeting. Parents and family members do not have to be invited to this meeting; however, parental input should come through reviewing the annual parent and family engagement assessment.

This meeting must be documented by an agenda, meeting date, and/or meeting minutes.

After this meeting has been held, the school must inform parents of the results of the annual review meeting. This can be done in various ways (newsletter, mailing, parent meeting, etc.); however, the method used to notify parents must be documented.

MEETING MINUTES

The XYZ Public School District’s Annual Title I Review Meeting was held on May 10, 2021, at 7:30 am in the school’s conference room. Principal XYZ led the meeting. Several staff members were present, including classroom teachers, special education personnel, and aides/paraprofessionals.

The purpose of our meeting was to review and discuss the current operation of our Title I program and to determine if there were necessary changes for the upcoming school year. Discussion was held regarding the progress of Title I students being served this school year and to determine if similar services will continue in the subsequent school year. The assessment methods, methods of service, and Title I parent and family engagement practices and expectations were also discussed. Although school personnel did not have recommendations at the meeting, Principal XYZ collected suggestions and recommendations through the end of the week.

We also discussed the Title I parent and family survey sent to Title I families to assess their opinions regarding the parent and family engagement component of our Title I program. Most of the surveys were returned, and all had very positive comments.

Based on the review of the parent and family surveys and teacher discussion, we concluded that the Title I program adequately addressed the needs of its Title I students.

Principal XYZ then shared the proposed Title I budget with the staff. Due to an increase in our allocation, we discussed providing additional Title I services to our middle school students during the next school year. There will be further discussion regarding this issue before any major decisions are made.
Dear Title I Parents and Guardians,

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the results of the XYZ Public School District’s Annual Title I Review Meeting. This meeting was conducted with teachers and administration during the spring of 2018 and is held each school year.

During this meeting, we discussed the merits of the Title I program and any questions or concerns of classroom teachers or other XYZ Public School District staff. We also discussed the results of the annual survey of Title I parents and families at this meeting.

The Title I Annual Review agenda and minutes from our meeting last spring are enclosed. Please contact the school if you have any questions or concerns regarding this information.

Sincerely,

 XYZ Public School District Title I Teacher

 XYZ Public School District Building Principal
Submission TA14 – Evidence-Based Research

Requirement
ESSA supports evidenced-based strategies, practices, activities, instructional materials, and programs that have been evaluated and proven to improve student outcomes. Districts can be confident that evidence-based strategies will likely produce positive results when implemented.

ESSA (Section 8002) and the U.S. Department of Education’s Non-Regulatory Guidance: Using Evidence to Strengthen Education Investments outline four levels of evidence. When you search for evidence-based strategies in the Evidence-Based Clearinghouse, the evidence-based strategies you see meet ESSA’s definitions for Level 1 ("Strong"), Level 2 ("Moderate"), or Level 3 ("Promising").

When an instructional program or practice is evidence-based, there must be consistent and reliable evidence that the activity, strategy, or intervention demonstrates a statistically significant effect on improving student outcomes. This includes interventions that:
- Employ systematic, empirical methods;
- Involve rigorous data analyses;
- Rely on measurements that provide reliable and valid data;
- Use experimental or quasi-experimental designs;
- Ensure that studies are clear and detailed to allow for replication; and
- Reviewed or accepted by independent experts.

What does this mean for Title I?
- All Title I programs, both targeted assistance and schoolwide, must use instructional strategies and methods that are evidence-based.
- All schools that receive Title I funds must provide documentation on how the programs and strategies they employ are evidence-based.
- Title I paid staff who provide instruction in reading and/or math, and all staff teaching in a schoolwide program must use evidence-based instructional strategies and methods.

Documentation
See subsequent page.

Alerts
External research partners can be an excellent resource for learning more about existing research on an activity, strategy, or intervention. If you have existing partnerships or are considering developing new research partnerships, ask them to share their insights and knowledge.

Resources
There are many resources and websites districts can use outlining the four levels of evidence by using existing research and cataloging evidence-based practices. A list of resources is available on the Evidence-Based Website.
