INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Enter county number, district number and district name.

- 2 Taxable Valuation: "Net assessed valuation" signifies the valuation remaining after deducting exemptions and making other deductions from the original full-assessed valuation, and is the valuation upon which the rate of levy finally is computed and against which the taxes finally are extended. The county where the school district's office is located must report the total valuation of the district, including the valuation of property located in other counties. Report the net total taxable valuation for all classifications of property to give the Total Taxable Valuation of the school district located in all counties.

- 3 a) Amount of tax levied: Complete this item for all fund levies. If areas are taxed differently within the same district, aggregate and place in this column. (DO NOT LIST THESE AREA LEVIES INDIVIDUALLY.)
b) Tax rate in mills: To find the tax rate in mills divide the tax levied for each fund by the taxable valuation on line 2. Carry two decimal places only. Example (xxx.xx)

- 4 Specified General Fund Levy Election(s): Enter specified general fund levy election held between October 1 of last year and September 30 of this year. Report the date of the election, the number of mills proposed for approval, the number of years for which approval is to apply, and the number of yes and no votes. NDCC 57-15-14

- 5 Building Fund Election(s): Enter each building levy election held between October 1 of last year and September 30 of this year. Report the date of the election, the number of mills proposed for approval, and the number of yes and no votes. NDCC 57-15-16

- 6 Bond Election(s): Enter each bond issue election held between October 1 of last year and September 30 of this year. Report the date of the election, the amount proposed for approval, and the number of yes and no votes. NDCC 21-03-07

- 7 Distribution of forms: Return the original to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before DECEMBER 1 of this year. Provide one copy to the County Superintendent of Schools, one copy to the School District, and retain one copy in the files of the County Auditor.

Certification of School District Taxable Valuation, Tax Levies, and School District Elections
