CIVIL RIGHTS STATEMENT: In accordance with all regulations, guidelines and standards adopted by the US Department of Education, the US Department of Agriculture and the ND Human Rights Act, the ND Department of Public Instruction prohibits discrimination on the basis of age, gender, race, color, religion, national origin, status with regard to marriage or public assistance, disability or political beliefs. All divisions of the Department of Public Instruction will insure that no one is denied participation in, or denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination under any department program or activity.

Equal education opportunity is a priority of the ND Department of Public Instruction.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide guidance to school staff regarding obligations under Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. These same obligations are required by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

These guidelines address Subparts D and E of the Section 504 regulations regarding student issues.

Purpose

Section 504 was implemented to prevent discrimination against individuals with disabilities in federally funded programs. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act was enacted in 1973. These federal regulations were implemented in 1977, and have seven sections:

- Subpart A    General Provisions
- Subpart B    Employment Practices
- Subpart C    Program Accessibility
- Subpart D    Preschool, Elementary, and Secondary Education Requirements*
- Subpart E    Postsecondary Education Requirements*
- Subpart F    Health, Welfare, and Social Services
- Subpart G    Procedures

"Handicapped individuals" will hereafter be referred to as "individuals with disabilities" in order to be consistent with current educational terminology.

Enforcement/Oversight

For many years, the main area of enforcement of Section 504 has been employment issues for individuals with disabilities. However, within the last several years, the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) has become more active in the provisions of Section 504 regarding the education of students with disabilities.

Requirement

Section 504 prohibits discrimination against any individuals with disabilities by public schools receiving federal financial assistance.

Management

Section 504 should be a general education management responsibility.

SECTION 504 EXAMPLES OF DISCRIMINATION

The following are some examples of how discrimination has occurred against individuals with disabilities:

1. A student with a disability is denied recognition as an honor roll student because one class is in the special education resource room.
2. A student is expelled from school for misbehavior that is related to his/her disability.
3. The school refuses to provide bus transportation that is as short in duration (within reason) as provided to student without disabilities.
4. The school refuses to allow a student with a disability the opportunity to audition for athletic teams or other extracurricular activities.
5. The school refuses to dispense medication to a student who needs it to benefit from education.
6. The high school counselor fails to provide information about the special provisions of college board examinations to students with disabilities.
7. The school refuses to provide a modified adaptive physical education program for a student who is obese and cannot participate in regular physical education.
8. The school does not provide an interpreter for a parent to attend a school meeting regarding his/her student.
9. The school does not provide an interpreter for a parent who is deaf to attend a school meeting regarding his/her student.
10. Students with disabilities are denied access to extracurricular activities.

DEFINITIONS

The following are definitions that will be used in this manual.

ACCOMMODATIONS – Adaptations made by classroom teacher(s) and other school staff to enable the students to access their educational program. In some cases, a Section 504 plan should be developed outlining accommodations.

ADA ACCESSIBILITY GUIDELINES (ADAAG) – Standards used to meet Section 504/ADA accessibility requirements for the design, construction, and alteration of buildings.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) – A civil rights law that prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities in the areas of accessibility, employment, public services, public accommodations, transportation, and communication. Congress recently passed the ADA Amendments of 2009.

BARRIER-FREE ENVIRONMENT – A school environment that contains no obstacles to accessibility and usability by students and other individuals with disabilities. Barriers can be physical and nonphysical.

CONSENT – Written parent permission before initial evaluation and initial education placement.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES PROTECTED UNDER 504 – Contagious diseases are those that can be transmitted from person to person. Examples are diseases such as AIDS, HIV, and tuberculosis.

EARLY INTERVENING TEAM – A group of school staff knowledgeable about students “at risk.” The team assists other teachers and suggests accommodations to help the student succeed in his/her general education program. This is sometimes referred to as a Building Level Support Team. Every effort should be made to keep the student in the general education program.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA) – the federal law and regulations that address student record keeping and confidentiality.

FREE APPROPRIATE PUBLIC EDUCATION (FAPE) – Related aids and services that are designed to meet individual educational needs of students with disabilities as adequately as the needs of nondisabled persons are met.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES EDUCATION ACT (IDEA) – Federal special education law and regulations.

MAJOR LIFE ACTIVITY – Functions such as walking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, seeing, speaking, caring for one’s self, working, helping, eating, sleeping, standing, lifting, bending, and operation of a bodily function.

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS (OCR) – this federal agency has three primary responsibilities: investigating complaints, conducting compliance reviews, and providing technical assistance. There are 10 regional offices located throughout the United States.

PHYSICAL OR MENTAL IMPAIRMENT – (1) any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genitourinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or (2) any mental or physical disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

The term “physical or mental impairment” includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech, and hearing impairments; cerebral palsy; epilepsy; muscular dystrophy; multiple sclerosis; cancer; heart disease; diabetes; mental retardation; emotional illness; drug addiction; and alcoholism.

PROGRAM ACCESSIBILITY – the school will ensure programs and activities are accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. In many instances, programs and activities may be made accessible through slight modifications and adjustments in procedures, practices, and policies. In others, building renovation or construction may be required. Structural change is required only where program accessibility cannot be achieved effectively through other means.

PROGRAM OR ACTIVITY – in the context of Section 504/ADA, this includes all operations of State and local agencies that receive federal funds. This includes colleges, universities, and/or school districts.

PUBLIC ENTITY – Any school, organization, agency, or office that receives federal funding and is therefore, obligated to follow Section 504/ ADA requirements.

PUBLIC NOTICE – The school is required to provide public notice and internal notice (i.e., to staff, individuals with disabilities, and students) stating it does not discriminate on the basis of a disability.

QUALIFIED STUDENT – Any student who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

SECTION 504 – The Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 that guarantees specific rights in federally funded programs and activities to people who qualify as disabled. Section 504 states, “No otherwise qualified disabled individual in the United States... shall, solely by reason of a disability be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

SECTION 504/ADA COORDINATOR – The school employing 15 or more persons must assign a person to coordinate compliance with Section 504 regulations. It is recommended that all schools appoint a 504/ ADA coordinator. It is recommended that the same individual serve as the Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator and be a general educator.

SECTION 504 CASE MANAGER – This is usually the primary school staff member providing accommodations for a specific student. Case managers could include counselors, school nurses, and general education teachers. The case manager maintains the Section 504 student file.

SELF-EVALUATION – The Americans with Disabilities Act requires that federal fund recipients evaluate their programs, physical accessibility, and employment practices to determine the extent to which programs and activities require modification to ensure full participation by students with disabilities. These evaluations should be revisited annually by the Section 504/ADA Coordinator.

TRANSITION PLAN – If a school determines that structural modifications are necessary to meet Section 504/ADA program accessibility requirements, the school must develop a plan specifying the steps necessary to complete such changes and the time frame for completion.

OVERVIEW

Section 504/ADA is a civil rights statute aimed at discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Like other statutes of Title VI (race) and Title IX (gender), Section 504/ADA focuses on discrimination based on disability. All programs or activities of the school are covered by Section 504/ADA obligations.

There is no State or federal funding provided to assist in complying with Section 504. All costs are the obligation of the general school district budget. Many schools have established a Section 504 line item in their general fund budget to cover necessary accommodations for individuals with disabilities.

REGULATIONS

Section 504 regulations have several areas that are particularly important for schools: Subpart B—employment practices, Subpart C—program accessibility, and Subparts D and E—requirements for preschool, elementary, secondary, and postsecondary education. These guidelines will focus on Subparts D and E.

SUMMARY OF SUBPARTS A–E

SUBPART A: GENERAL PROVISIONS

This part of the regulations outlines the nondiscriminatory responsibilities of schools that receive federal funds or are a public entity. No person, on the basis of a disability, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program that benefits from federal funding or is a public entity.

SUBPART B: EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

No qualified person shall, on the basis of his/her disability, be subjected to discrimination in employment by any program or activity that receives federal funds or is a public entity.

The school must make reasonable accommodations for employees with known physical and mental impairments unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the school's program. Examples of reasonable accommodations would include making facilities accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities, job restructuring, part-time or modified work schedules, and acquisition or modification of equipment or devices.

SUBPART C: PROGRAM ACCESSIBILITY

No individual with a disability shall be denied the benefits of, be excluded from participation in, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity because facilities are inaccessible or unusable. Building and program accessibility is applicable to any individual with disabilities accessing any activities or programs in that school building.

The regulation contains two standards to be used in determining whether programs and activities are accessible to individuals with disabilities. One standard deals with “existing” facilities; the other deals with “new” construction. The term “existing facility” means the facility was in existence or in the process of construction before June 3, 1977, the effective date of the regulation. The term “new construction” means groundbreaking that took place on or after the effective date of the regulation.

Leased facilities (mobile units) that are leased or constructed with federal funds are required to meet the standards of new construction. Other leased units are required to meet the standards of existing facilities.

The standard for a facility existing before June 3, 1977, for 504 or January 26, 1992, for ADA requires that federally assisted programs or activities operated in that facility must, when viewed in their entirety, be readily accessible. This standard does not require that every facility or part be accessible so long as the program or activity as a whole is accessible. Thus, recipients need not make structural changes to facilities that existed before June 3, 1977 for 504 or before January 26, 1992, for ADA where other alternative methods are effective in making programs and activities accessible so long as priority consideration is given to offering the services in the most integrated setting appropriate.

One example of an alternative method in a school would be the relocation of classes, activities, or services to an accessible site. Facility alteration or new construction is required to achieve program accessibility only if sufficient relocation of classes, activities, or services cannot be housed in an existing facility. In meeting the objective of program accessibility, the school must take precautions not to isolate or concentrate students with disabilities in settings away from students without disabilities.

The regulation requires that all new construction begun after June 3, 1977, for 504 or January 26, 1992, for ADA, as well as alterations to existing facilities, must be designed and constructed so as to make facilities accessible and usable by individuals with disabilities.

SUBPART D: REQUIREMENTS FOR PRESCHOOL, ELEMENTARY, MIDDLE LEVEL, JUNIOR HIGH, SECONDARY EDUCATION, AND ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

Preschool, elementary, middle level/junior high, and secondary programs must take into account the needs of qualified persons with disabilities in determining the aid, benefits, or services to be provided under these programs or activities.

The school must provide a free appropriate public education to students with disabilities in its jurisdiction who are eligible under Section 504. Instruction must be individually designed to meet the needs of those students as adequately as the needs of students without disabilities. This standard of what is “appropriate” differs from the IDEA “appropriate” standard, which requires the school to design a program reasonably calculated to confer educational benefit. An appropriate education under Section 504/ADA requires that the services be effective and fair.

Although Section 504 does not require schools to develop an Individualized Education Program with annual goals or an accommodation plan, the school should provide written documentation for each student identified and provided accommodations and/or services under Section 504. If the Building Level Support Team suspects a need for accommodation, a referral should be made, evaluations conducted, and possible identification determined by a team knowledgeable about the student. If the student is identified, the team might develop a Section 504 Accommodation Plan.

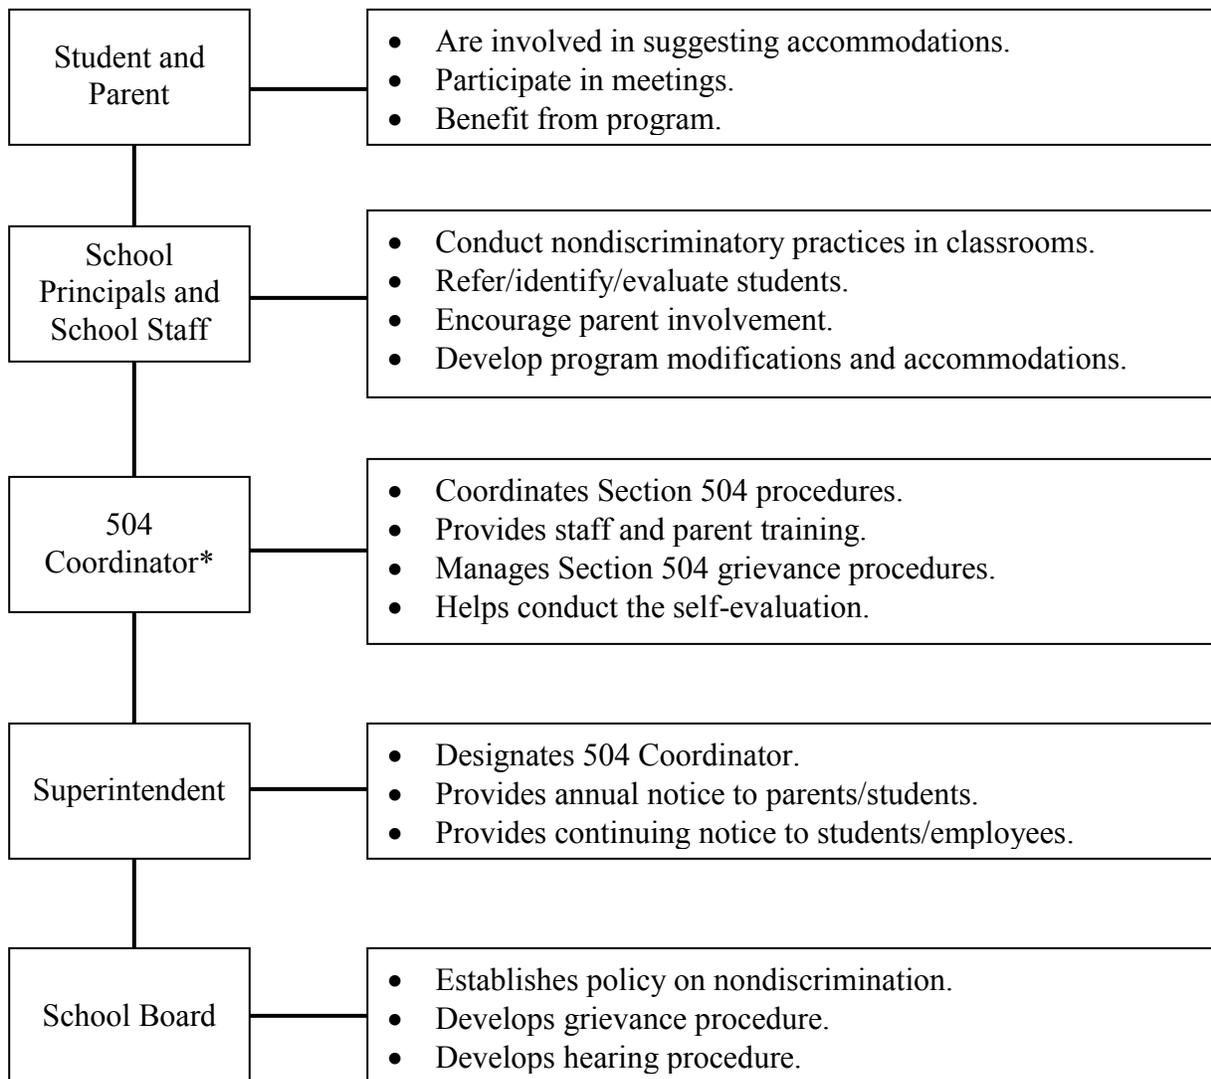

The quality of educational services provided to individuals with disabilities must be equivalent to the services provided to individuals without disabilities. Teachers, administrators, staff, and parents should receive ongoing training in the instruction of individuals with disabilities and be knowledgeable about the disability, appropriate materials, and equipment. The Section 504 Coordinator will be responsible to develop and implement staff and parent training.

RESPONSIBILITY

Section 504 should fall under the management of general education. The figure on the next page illustrates some obligations of general education under Section 504 and their relationship with school personnel roles. The school staff and parents should collaborate to help guarantee that students are provided accommodations through general education. The exception to this standard is a student who has been determined eligible as having a disability under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Such a student could receive special education services under IDEA and accommodations required under Section 504. Many schools will include the Section 504 accommodations on the IEP rather than developing two separate documents.

RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE SECTION 504 PROCESS

RESPONSIBILITY

* Parents and school personnel must be notified as to who is the 504 coordinator. If possible, the Coordinator should be a person from general education.

SOME PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

To be in compliance with Section 504, schools must have policies and procedures in place for the following:

1. Provide written assurance of nondiscrimination whenever the school receives federal money (e.g., on the LEA application). [34 CFR § 104.5(a)]
2. Designate an employee to coordinate compliance with Section 504/ADA (if there are more than 15 employees). [34 CFR § 104.7(a)]
3. Provide grievance procedures to resolve complaints of discrimination (if more than 15 employees): mediation, complaint process, and due process hearings. [34 CFR 104.7(b)]
4. Provide notice to students and parents. A separate notice should be available for employees, unions, and professional organizations of nondiscrimination in admission or access to, treatment at, and employment in its programs or activities (if more than 15 employees). Notice must be included in student/parent handbook. [34 CFR §104.8]
5. The school will identify and locate qualified students with disabilities within their jurisdiction. [34 CFR 104.32]
6. Annually notify persons with disabilities and their parents or guardians of the school's responsibilities under Section 504/ADA. [34 CFR § 104.32(b)]
7. Provide parents or guardians with procedural safeguards:
  - a. Notice of their rights
  - b. An opportunity to review relevant records
  - c. An impartial hearing. It is important that parents or guardians be notified of their right to request a hearing regarding the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of individuals with disabilities [34 CFR § 104.36].
  - d. Review of procedures. Compliance with the procedural safeguards under special education is one way of meeting these requirements.
8. Conduct a self-evaluation of the school facilities, programs, and policies to ensure that discrimination is not taking place. [34 CFR § 104.6 (c)] This study should be conducted with the assistance of interested persons, including persons with disabilities.

The next few pages will clarify and provide suggested procedures for complying with the procedural requirements under Section 504.

PROCEDURE ONE:
34 CFR 104.56 (A)
WRITTEN ASSURANCE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Whenever a school applies for State or federal monies, it must assure that it does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or disability. This requirement is done routinely by all schools.

PROCEDURE TWO:
34 CFR 104.7 (A)
SECTION 504 COORDINATOR

The general provisions of Section 504/ADA, together with other federal nondiscrimination laws, require the designation of a person to coordinate the school's efforts to comply with these laws. Coordination activities could include some or all of the following:

Suggested Responsibilities of the Section 504 Coordinator

- Ensure nondiscriminatory educational practices.
- Establish and monitor a Section 504/ADA referral/identification/review process.
- Maintain data on Section 504/ADA referrals.
- Conduct staff and parent awareness and training activities concerning Section 504/ADA requirements.
- Implement Section 504/ADA grievance procedures.
- Monitor Section 504/ADA budget.
- Consult with the Special Education Coordinator.
- Serve as the school liaison with the regional Office for Civil Rights.

The Section 504/ADA Coordinator could be someone already employed by the school. A general education staff member or school counselor who is knowledgeable about federal laws and regulations would be preferred. In many cases, this person oversees and is responsible for other civil rights laws.

– Best Practice –

General Education Administrator    School Counselor    School Nurse

PROCEDURE THREE:
34 CFR 104.7 (B)
SAMPLE SCHOOL GRIEVANCE PROCESS

Section I

If any person believes that the school or any of the school's staff have inadequately applied the regulations of (1) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (2) Title IX of the Education Amendment Act of 1972, (3) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or (4) the Americans with Disabilities Act, he/she may bring forward a grievance to the school's Section 504/ADA coordinator. It should be understood by the individual(s) involved that a complaint can be made to the Office for Civil Rights without going through the school's grievance procedures. The grievance procedures are to provide for a prompt and equitable resolution of a complaint.

Section II

The school 504 coordinator, on request, will provide a copy of the school's grievance procedure and investigate all complaints in accordance with this procedure. The grievance procedure should include a statement that a copy of each of the acts and the regulations on which this notice is based may be found in the coordinator's office.

The person who believes he/she may have been discriminated against based on disability shall discuss the grievance and give the completed grievance form to the school Section 504 coordinator who shall in turn investigate the complaint and reply with an answer to the complainant.

Step 1

A written grievance form signed by complainant shall be submitted to the school Section 504 Coordinator. The coordinator shall further investigate the matters of grievance and reply in writing to the complainant within 10 school days.

Step 2

If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision of the school Section 504 Coordinator, he/she may submit a signed statement of appeal to the district administrator within 10 school days after receipt of the coordinator's response. The coordinator and superintendent should not be the same individual. The superintendent shall meet with all parties involved, formulate a conclusion, and respond in writing to the complainant within 10 school days.

Step 3

If the complainant remains unsatisfied, he/she may appeal through a signed written statement to the school board of education within 10 school days of his/her receipt of the district's response in Step Two. In an attempt to resolve the grievance, the board shall meet with the concerned parties and their representative within 15 school days of the receipt of such an appeal. A copy of the board's disposition of the appeal shall be sent to each concerned party within 10 school days of this meeting.

Step 4

The complainant may file a complaint with the Office for Civil Rights at any time before or during the grievance procedures.

MEDIATION

Mediation is not a requirement under Section 504 but should be considered a best practice. Most of the time, parents and school staff agree on issues regarding evaluation, identification, program, and placement of students with disabilities. However, there are times when disagreement occurs.

Conflict is often inevitable, but it need not produce negative results. If the parent and school are unable to resolve a conflict concerning a student with a disability, then mediation is an available alternative to a long and expensive due process hearing.

Section 504 does not require mediation. Mediation is completely voluntary. It should not interfere with any procedural safeguards, including a request for a due process hearing or filing a complaint with OCR. Mediation costs are the responsibility of the school.

The mediator is a neutral third party and, therefore, has no power to make a decision regarding the dispute. He or she will listen to the views of each party and will assist in developing an acceptable solution to the problem. The mediator has been trained to handle Section 504 disputes.

A trained mediator works with both parties to guide them toward a mutually satisfactory solution in the best interest of the student. This occurs at a nonadversative meeting that is more structured than a parent-school conference but less formal than a due process hearing.

Parents and schools are encouraged to try mediation before relying on more formal procedures, such as the grievance procedures, complaints to OCR, or due process hearings.

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINT PROCESS

An individual or an organization may file a complaint with the regional Office for Civil Rights (OCR). An OCR complaint must be filed, in writing, within 180 days after the violation has occurred. In certain cases, OCR will consider complaints where more than 180 days have elapsed.

Anyone wishing to file a formal complaint with OCR should submit in writing the following information in a letter or on the Discrimination Complaint Form available from OCR regional offices:

1. Name and address (a telephone number where they may be reached during business hours is helpful but not required)
2. A general description of the person(s) or class of persons injured by the alleged discriminatory act(s) (names of the injured person(s) are not required)
3. The name and location of the institute that committed the alleged discriminatory act(s)
4. A description of the alleged discriminatory act(s) in sufficient detail to enable OCR to understand what occurred, when it occurred, and the basis for the alleged discrimination (race, sex, color, national origin, age or disability)

A school may not retaliate against any person who has made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation.

PROCEDURE FOUR:
34 CFR 104.8
GENERAL NOTICE TO STUDENTS, PARENTS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS

The school must provide an ongoing notice of non-discrimination.

Example

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION Applicants for admission and employment, students, parents, persons with disabilities, employees, and all unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the _____ are hereby notified that this school does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs and activities. Any person having inquiries concerning the school's compliance with the regulations implementing Title VI, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), or Section 504 is directed to contact _____ _____ _____ who has been designated by the school to coordinate efforts to comply with the regulations regarding nondiscrimination.

Recommendations for notice dissemination

- Staff, parent, and student handouts
- Letterheads
- Staff workrooms
- Bulletin boards
- Included on professional contracts
- Included on job announcements
- Annual mailing to staff
- School website

PROCEDURE FIVE: 34 CFR 104.32 LOCATE AND IDENTIFY – CHILD FIND

The school shall maintain a continual program to find unserved students who might qualify for special education or Section 504 accommodations and/or services. To encourage the use of services and ongoing assistance at the earliest age possible, the following methods could be used to identify unserved students:

- A series of spot announcements on all local news media, including newspapers
- A series of posters to be placed in post offices, city hall, schools, and other public buildings
- Distribution of a referral form to such public and private agents as hospital administrators, public health officers, social welfare offices, private medical practitioners, public nursery schools, and/or childcare and Head Start directors. Referrals should be made to the district special education coordinator, or Section 504 Coordinator, for appropriate action.

PROCEDURE SIX:
34 CFR 104.36
ANNUAL NOTICE TO INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES AND PARENTS

The school must provide a form to individuals with disabilities regarding the school's obligations under Section 504.

Example

NOTICE

PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES UNDER SECTION 504 OF
THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973 AND THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act prohibits discrimination against persons with a disability in any program receiving federal financial assistance. Section 504/ADA defines a person with a disability as anyone who, based on an evaluation,

Has a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as walking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, seeing, speaking, caring for one's self, working, helping, eating, sleeping, standing, lifting, bending, and operation of a bodily function.

The school has the responsibility to provide accommodations and necessary services to identified individuals with disabilities.

The school acknowledges its responsibility under Section 504/ADA to avoid discrimination in policies and practices regarding its personnel and students. No discrimination against any person with a disability shall knowingly be permitted in any program or practice in the school.

Recommendations for notice dissemination

- Upon referral to parents
- School website
- Letterheads
- Staff workrooms
- Bulletin boards
- Included on professional contracts
- Included on job announcements
- Annual mailing to staff

PROCEDURE SEVEN:
34 CFR 104.36
PARENT AND STUDENT RIGHTS UNDER SECTION 504/ADA

The school must provide certain procedural safeguards to parents of students with disabilities.

Example

The following is a description of some student and parent rights under Section 504 and other federal laws. Many school districts use their IDEA procedural safeguards as the parent rights for Section 504. The intent of the law is to keep you fully informed concerning decisions about your student and to inform you of your rights if you disagree with any of these decisions.

You have the right to the following:

1. Have your student take part in and receive benefits from public education programs without discrimination based on a disability.
2. Receive notice with respect to identification, evaluation, program, or placement of your student.
3. Have your student receive a free appropriate public education. This includes the right to be educated with other students to the maximum extent appropriate. It also includes the right to have the school make reasonable accommodations to allow your student an equal opportunity to participate in school and school-related activities.
4. Have your student educated in facilities and receive services comparable to those provided students without disabilities.
5. Have evaluation, educational, and placement decisions made based on a variety of information sources and by individuals who know the student, disability, evaluation data, and placement options.
6. Give your student an equal opportunity to participate in nonacademic and extracurricular activities offered by the school.
7. Examine all relevant records relating to decisions regarding your student's identification, evaluation, educational program, and placement.
8. File a local grievance with your school if you feel your student is being discriminated against because of his or her disability.
9. Request the use of a mediator to help resolve the differences.
10. Request a due process hearing to help resolve issues with the school.
11. File a formal complaint with the regional Office for Civil Rights.

PROCEDURE EIGHT:
34 CFR 104.6 (c)
SELF-EVALUATION

A self-evaluation to determine possible discrimination involving school facilities, programs, activities, and policies is a requirement of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Any school that employs 15 or more employees shall conduct such an evaluation and develop a transition plan that outlines how the school will eliminate any form of discrimination.

The self-study should be on file and available for public inspection.

The following are key considerations when conducting the self-evaluation:

- Evaluate facilities, programs, and policies.
- Involve other individuals, including persons with disabilities.
- Develop a Section 504/ADA transition plan that outlines any modifications that will be necessary. This plan identifies facilities, programs, and policies that could be discriminatory and how the school intends to solve the problems.
- Modify any policies, facilities, or practices that do not meet the requirements of Section 504 or ADA, after consultation with others, including persons with disabilities.
- Take appropriate remedial steps to eliminate the effects of any discrimination resulting from policies and practices.
- Keep a copy of the self-evaluation on file for public inspection.
- Conduct periodic reevaluations as needed.
- Ensure all new policies are nondiscriminatory.
- Ensure all new facilities are accessible for individuals with disabilities.

Schools should request comprehensive instructions and forms to conduct a self-assessment from the Office for Civil Rights.

SECTION 504

IDENTIFICATION/EVALUATION

The following is the identification criteria for a student to receive accommodations and/or services under Section 504.

SECTION 504 IDENTIFICATION CRITERIA

A person may be considered disabled under the definition of Section 504 if the individual is evaluated and

1. Has a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities

“Major life activities” include functions such as

- Walking
- Breathing
- Learning
- Reading
- Concentrating
- Thinking
- Communicating
- Seeing
- Speaking
- Other
- Caring for one’s self
- Working
- Helping
- Eating
- Sleeping
- Standing
- Lifting
- Bending
- Operation of a bodily function

2. Has a record of such an impairment.
3. Is regarded as having such an impairment.

The second and third prongs of the definition only become a factor if discrimination has occurred because of the “record” or “history” or is regarded as having an impairment

Major Life Activities

The ADA Amendments of 2009 included the major life activities in the law and added several new life activities. The list is not exhaustive. Listed below are the activities in the ADA. The new ones are bolded.

Major life activities include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, and working. 42 U.S.C. 12102(4)(a)(2)(A).

It also includes the operation of a major bodily function as follows:

For purpose of paragraph (1), a major life activity also includes the operation a major bodily function, including but not limited to, functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine, and reproductive functions. 42 U.S.C. 12102(4)(a)(2)(B).

Impairment/Disability

Notice that this definition draws a distinction between and “impairment” and a “disability.” There are many more people with “impairments” than there are people with “disabilities.” The difference lies in the effect the impairment has on the person. If the impairment causes a “substantial limitation” of a “major life activity” then the person has a “disability.” If the impairment does not “substantially limit” the person, then it is just an impairment, not a disability.

Substantial Limitation

The determination of substantial limitation must be made on a case-by-case basis with respect to each individual student. The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35 (c) requires that a group of knowledgeable persons draw upon information from a variety of sources in making this determination.

Neither the ADA nor Section 504 provide a definition of this critical term. The ADA amendments simply state:

The term “substantially limits” shall be interpreted consistently with the findings and purposes of the ADA Amendment Act of 2008. 42 U.S.C. 12102(4)(a)(4)(B).

For many years the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) has defined “substantially limits” as follows:

- i. unable to perform a major life activity that the average person in the general population can perform; or
- ii. significantly restricted as to the condition, manner, or duration under which an individual can perform a major life activity as compared to the condition, manner, or duration under which the average person in the general population can perform that same major life activity. 29 C.F.R. 1630.2(j).

Mitigating Measures

The determination of whether an impairment substantially limits a major life activity shall be made without regard to the effects of mitigating measures such as:

- I. Medication, medical supplies, equipment, or appliances, low-vision devices (which do not include ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses), prosthetics including limbs and devices, hearing aids and cochlear implants or other implantable hearing devices, mobility devices, or oxygen therapy equipment and supplies;
- II. Use of assistive technology;
- III. Reasonable accommodations or auxiliary aids or services; or
- IV. Learned behavioral or adaptive neurological modifications. 42 U.S.C. 12102(4)(a)(4)(E)(i).

So under the 2009 ADAA, students and employees are disabled under Section 504 if they have a physical or mental impairment that WOULD substantially limit them in a major life activity IF THEY WERE NOT taking advantage of mitigating measures.

Temporary Impairments

A temporary impairment does not constitute a disability for purposes of Section 504 unless its severity is such that it results in a substantial limitation of one or more major life activities for an extended period of time. The issue of whether a temporary impairment is substantial enough to be a disability must be resolved on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration both the duration (or expected duration) of the impairment and the extent to which it actually limits a major life activity of the affected individual.

Procedural Safeguards

School districts are required to establish and implement procedural safeguards that include notice, an opportunity for parents to review relevant records, an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the student's parents or guardian, representation by counsel and a review procedure. Many school districts modify their special education parent rights for Section 504 situations.

If the school has reason to suspect that because of a disability, a student needs special accommodations in the general educational environment in order to have equally effective participation in the school program, the school must notify the parent of an individual evaluation, secure parent consent, evaluate the student, and develop and implement a plan for the delivery of all necessary educational accommodations. Requirements for the evaluation and placement process are determined by the type of disability suspected and the type of services needed by the student. The team knowledgeable about the student makes the decision based on evaluation data. Identification of services needed must be made by a group of persons knowledgeable about the student.

Decisions about Section 504 should be documented in the student's Section 504 file and reviewed at least yearly and whenever any member of the team feels it is necessary. A case manager should be assigned to complete and manage each Section 504 student file. A student's program must be provided in the least restrictive environment, most likely the general education classroom.

Under Section 504/ADA, parents or guardians must be provided with notice of any action that changes the identification, evaluation program, or placement of their student. Written consent would be considered a best practice. The parents should be included in the evaluation and placement process. Parents or guardians have the right to file a grievance, request mediation, ask for a due process hearing, or call the Office for Civil Rights if they disagree with the school.

*– Best Practice –
Parent participation should always be encouraged throughout the Section 504 process.*

RED FLAGS FOR CONSIDERING POSSIBLE EVALUATION FOR IDENTIFICATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS UNDER SECTION 504/ADA

1. When a parent frequently expresses a concern about the student's performance
2. When suspension or expulsion is being considered for any student
3. When retention is being considered
4. When a student shows a pattern of not benefiting from classroom instruction
5. When a student returns to school after a serious illness or injury

6. When the student does not respond to early intervening strategies
7. When a student is evaluated and does not qualify for special education services under the IDEA
8. When a student exhibits a chronic health condition
9. When a student has been identified as having attention deficit disorder (ADD) or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
10. When a disability of any kind is known or suspected

It is important to note that accommodations and/or services under Section 504 are not automatic. The student in question needs to be referred for an evaluation, receive an evaluation, and have the results considered by a school team.

The following chart is a suggested identification and evaluation Section 504 process:

SUGGESTED PROCESS FOR IDENTIFICATION/EVALUATION

SECTION 504 SERVICES

STEP 1 – GENERAL EDUCATION INTERVENTIONS

- a) If a student experiences educational difficulties, the Building Level Support Team meets to discuss the concerns.
- b) The team suggests intervention strategies to help correct the difficulties. The primary function of the team is to offer assistance to teachers.
- c) If the strategies are unsuccessful, the team can make a referral for evaluation to Section 504, special education, or Title I.

STEP 2 – REFERRAL

- a) Referrals are accepted from parents and/or the Building Level Support Team.
- b) The presenting problem(s) and previous remedies are considered and reviewed. The summary should include all current information and recommendations.

STEP 3 – NOTIFICATION

The school notifies the parents or guardians, in writing, of the school's reason and intent to conduct an evaluation. The notice should include a description of the evaluation and of procedural safeguards.

STEP 4 – WRITTEN CONSENT

Receive written consent from the parent for the initial evaluation and accommodation plan.

STEP 5 – EVALUATION

The school evaluates a student suspected of having a disability before making an initial provision for services or any subsequent, significant change in his or her services.

STEP 6 – IDENTIFICATION

Section 504 Team – a recommended strategy is to use the Building Level Support Team as the Section 504 Team. The team meets and analyzes the evaluation data to determine if the individual has a mental or physical impairment that substantially impairs a major life activity.

STEP 7 – WRITTEN CONSENT

Written consent before the initial accommodations/ service should always be considered a best practice.

STEP 8 – SERVICES/ACCOMMODATIONS

The Section 504 Team develops an accommodation plan to be implemented in the general education environment.

STEP 9 – IMPLEMENTATION

- a) The school staff implements the necessary accommodations/services. Parents should be consulted and given opportunity for input regarding the accommodations.

STEP 10 – REVIEW

Each student's accommodations and/or services are reviewed periodically.

– Best Practice –

The team should review the accommodations at least annually.

SECTION 504

ACCOMMODATIONS/SERVICES

The following is a list of possible accommodations for identified students under Section 504. Each case must be considered based upon the evaluation results and unique needs of the student.

ENVIRONMENTAL STRATEGIES

- Provide a structured learning environment.
- Adjust class schedules.
- Provide classroom aides and note takers.
- Modify nonacademic times, such as lunch room and recess.
- Modify physical education.
- Change student seating.
- Provide use of a study carrel.
- Alter location of personal or classroom supplies for easier access or to minimize distraction.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRATEGIES

- Modify test delivery.
- Use tape recorders, computer-aided instruction, and other audiovisual equipment.
- Select modified textbooks or workbooks.
- Tailor homework assignments.
- Use one-to-one tutors.
- Provide peer tutoring.
- Set time expectations for assignments.
- Provide tests in segments so that the student finishes one segment before receiving the next part.
- Highlight main ideas and supporting details in the book.

BEHAVIOR STRATEGIES

- Use behavioral management techniques.
- Implement behavioral/academic contracts.
- Use positive reinforcements (rewards).
- Use negative reinforcements (consequences).
- Confer with the student's parents and other teachers.
- Establish a home/school communication system for behavior monitoring.
- Post rules and consequences for classroom behavior.
- Write a contract for student behavior.
- Offer social reinforcers (e.g., praise) for appropriate behavior.
- Establish daily/weekly progress report for the student.
- Implement self-recording of behaviors.

PRESENTATION STRATEGIES

- Tape lessons for the student.
- Provide photocopied material for extra practice (e.g., outlines, study guides).
- Require fewer drill and practice activities.
- Give both oral and visual instructions for assignments.
- Vary the method of lesson presentation:
  - a. lecture
  - b. small groups
  - c. large groups
  - d. audio visuals (e.g., filmstrips, study prints)
  - e. peer tutors or cross-age tutors (e.g., take notes, monitor assignments, read aloud, listen)
  - f. demonstrations
  - g. experiments

- h. simulations
- i. games
- j. one-to-one instruction with other adult

- Provide for oral testing.
- Ask student to repeat directions/ assignments to ensure understanding.
- Arrange for a mentor to work with student in his or her interest area or area of greatest strength.

METHODOLOGY STRATEGIES

- Repeat and simplify instructions about in-class and homework assignments.
- Supplement oral instructions with visual instructions.
- Change instructional pace.
- Change instructional methods.

CURRICULUM STRATEGIES

- Assess whether student has the necessary prerequisite skills. Determine whether materials are appropriate to the student's current interest and functioning levels.
- Use supplementary materials.
- Implement study skill strategies (survey, read, recite, review). Introduce definition of new terms/vocabulary and review to check for understanding.
- Limit amount of material presented on a single page.
- Provide a sample or practice test.
- Be aware of student's preferred learning style and provide appropriate instruction/materials.

100 EFFECTIVE EDUCATIONAL ACCOMMODATIONS

The following are effective academic and behavior accommodations found in the educational literature.

1. Provide study carrels.
2. Use room dividers.
3. Provide headsets to muffle noise.
4. Seat student away from doors/ windows.
5. Seat near model (student or teacher).
6. Provide time-out area.
7. Rearrange student groups (according to instructional needs, role models, etc.).
8. Group for cooperative learning.
9. Vary working surface (e.g., floor or vertical surface such as blackboards).
10. Simplify/ shorten directions.
11. Give both oral and written directions.
12. Have student repeat directions.
13. Have student repeat lesson objective.
14. Ask frequent questions.
15. Change question level.
16. Change response format (e.g., from verbal to physical; from saying to pointing).
17. Provide sequential directions (label as first, second, etc.).
18. Use manipulatives.
19. Alter objective criterion level.
20. Provide functional tasks (relate to student's environment).
21. Reduce number of items on a task.
22. Highlight relevant words/features.
23. Use rebus (picture) directions.
24. Provide guided practice.
25. Provide more practice trials.
26. Increase allocated time.
27. Use a strategy approach.
28. Change reinforcers.
29. Increase reinforcement frequency.
30. Delay reinforcement.

31. Increase wait time.
32. Use physical warm-up exercises.
33. Use specific rather than general praise.
34. Have a peer tutor program.
35. Provide frequent review.
36. Have student summarize at end of lesson.
37. Use self-correcting materials.
38. Adapt test items for differing response modes.
39. Provide mnemonic devices.
40. Provide tangible reinforcers.
41. Use behavioral contracts.
42. Establish routines for handing work in, heading papers, etc.
43. Use timers to show allocated time.
44. Teach self-monitoring.
45. Provide visual cues (e.g., posters, desktop number lines, etc.).
46. Block out extraneous stimuli on written material.
47. Tape-record directions.
48. Tape-record student responses.
49. Use a study guide.
50. Provide critical vocabulary list for content material.
51. Provide essential fact list.
52. Use clock faces to show classroom routine times.
53. Use dotted lines to line up math problems or show margins.
54. Provide transition directions.
55. Assign only one task at a time.
56. Provide discussion questions before reading.
57. Use word markers to guide reading.
58. Alter sequence of presentation.
59. Enlarge or highlight key words on test items.
60. Provide daily and weekly assignment sheets.
61. Post daily/weekly schedule.
62. Use graph paper for place value or when adding/subtracting two digit numbers.
63. Provide anticipation cues.
64. Establish rules and review frequently.
65. Teach key direction words.
66. Use distributed practice.

67. Provide pencil grips.
68. Tape paper to desk.
69. Shorten project assignments into daily tasks.
70. Segment directions.
71. Number (order) assignments to be completed.
72. Change far-point to near-point material for copying or review.
73. Put desk close to chalkboard.
74. Incorporate currently popular themes/characters into assignments for motivation.
75. Repeat major points.
76. Use physical cues while speaking (e.g., 1, 2, 3, etc.).
77. Pause during speaking.
78. Use verbal cues (e.g., "Don't write this down," "This is important").
79. Change tone of voice, whisper, etc.
80. Use an honor system.
81. Collect notebooks weekly (periodically) to review student notes.
82. Reorganize tests to go from easy to hard.
83. Color code place value tasks.
84. Use self-teaching materials.
85. Do only odd or even numbered items on a large task sheet.
86. Use a computer or large print to create written material.
87. Provide organizers (e.g., cartons/bins) for desk material.
88. Teach varied reading rates (e.g., scanning, skimming, etc.).
89. Provide content/lecture summaries.
90. Use peer-mediated strategies (e.g., "buddy system").
91. Call student's name before asking a question.
92. Use extra spaces between lines of print.
93. Color code materials/directions.
94. Use raised-line paper.
95. Provide calculators.
96. Circle math computation sign.
97. Use hand signals to cue behavior (e.g., attention, responding).
98. Establish a rationale for learning.
99. Use advance organizers.
100. Help students to develop their own learning strategies.

EXAMPLES OF IDENTIFIED STUDENTS

The Section 504 Team and Accommodation Plan are not mentioned in the federal regulations but are considered best practice. Accommodations are determined by the Section 504 team and based upon the evaluation results and student's unique needs. Each of these examples assumes the students has been evaluated and identified by the school Section 504 team. Please note that for any accommodations or services that relate to "health care procedures," the school should contact an RN or LPN and adhere to the State Nurse Practice Act.

ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME (AIDS)

EXAMPLE: The student frequently misses school and does not have the strength to attend a full day. This student has a record of a disability that substantially limits the life activities of learning and working.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop health care and emergency plan.
- Apply universal precautions.
- Administer medications as prescribed.
- Adjust attendance policies.
- Adjust schedule or shorten day.
- Provide rest periods.
- Adapt physical education curriculum.
- Establish routine communication with health professionals, school nurse, and home.
- Meet with doctor, parents, teachers, and administrators.
- Modify assignments and tests.
- Provide an extra set of textbooks for home.
- Provide staff training on confidentiality.
- Provide transportation to and from school.
- Tape books or provide a personal reader.
- Provide a home computer with e-mail.
- Arrange for a support group.

- Provide employment transitions for secondary students.
- Develop supportive community attitudes regarding the school districts' need to educate students who are HIV/AIDS positive.
- Develop and promote nondiscriminatory classroom climate and supportive student attitudes.
- Promote the most supportive, least restrictive educational program for students with AIDS.
- Video-tape classroom teacher.
- Provide a peer support group to encourage communication.
- Furnish home and hospital care for extended periods of illness.
- Provide technology at home with a possible link to the school.

ALLERGIES

EXAMPLE: The student has severe allergic reactions to certain pollens and foods. The student is substantially limited to the major life activity of breathing.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Avoid allergy-causing substances: soap, weeds, pollen, and food.
- Train necessary persons: dietary people, peers, coaches, laundry for sports people (soap).
- Allow time for shots/clinic appointments.
- Use air purifiers.
- Adapt physical education curriculum during high pollen time.
- Improve room ventilation (when remodeling has occurred and materials may cause an allergy).

ARTHRITIS

EXAMPLE: A student with arthritis may have persistent pain, tenderness, or swelling in one or more joints. A student experiencing arthritic pain may require a modified physical education program. The student is substantially limited in the major life activity of walking and performing manual tasks.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop health care plan and emergency plan.
- Provide a rest period during the day.
- Accommodate for absences for doctor's appointments.
- Provide assistive devices for writing (e.g., pencil grips, non-skid surface, typewriter/computer, etc.).
- Modify physical education curriculum.
- Administer medication as prescribed.
- Arrange for assistance with carrying books, lunch tray, etc.
- Provide book caddy.
- Implement movement plan to avoid stiffness.
- Provide seating accommodations.
- Allow extra time between classes.
- Provide locker assistance.
- Provide modified eating utensils.
- Accommodate for writing with a computer and note-taking with a tape recorder.
- Make available access to wheelchair/ramps and school van for transportation.
- Modify recess time.
- Provide peer support groups.
- Arrange for instructional aide support.
- Arrange for someone else to take notes.
- Install handle style doorknobs (openers).
- Have teacher provide outlines of presentation.
- Issue velcro fasteners for bags, shoes, and coats.
- Provide a more comfortable style of desk.
- Adjust attendance policy, if needed.
- Provide a shorter school day.

- Furnish a warmer room and sit student close to the heat.
- Modify curriculum for the lab classes.
- Supply an extra set of books for home use and keep a set at school.
- Let student give reports in oral form rather than written.
- Begin an awareness program for other students.
- Make any needed bathroom accommodations.

ASTHMA
EXAMPLE: A student has been diagnosed as having asthma. The disability limits the major life activity of breathing.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop health care and emergency plan.
- Modify activity level for recess, physical education, etc.
- Use air purifier or inhalants.
- Provide inhalant therapy assistance.
- Administer medication as prescribed.
- Provide homebound instruction.
- Remove allergens—e.g., hairspray, lotions, perfumes, pine trees, carpet.
- Make field trips non-mandatory and supplement with videos, audios, movies, etc.
- Accommodate medical absence; arrange transportation to home/clinic.
- Provide education to peers/teachers/others (bus drivers, cooks, etc.).
- Provide access to water, gum, etc.
- Provide curriculum considerations (science class, physical education, etc.)
- Provide easy compensation if individual misses an excessive amount of school.
- Have peers available to carry materials to and from classes (e.g., lunch tray, books).
- Provide rest periods.
- Make school health care needs known to appropriate staff.
- Modify field trip experiences.
- Provide indoor space for before and after school.

- Arrange for access to wheelchair for transition purposes.
- Have a locker location that is centralized and free of atmosphere changes.
- Reimburse parent for transportation costs or provide alternate transportation to and from school.
- Modify attendance policies.
- Modify certain learning activities.

ATTENTION DEFICIT DISORDER (ADD) AND ATTENTION DEFICIT HYPERACTIVITY DISORDER (ADHD)
---

EXAMPLE: The student does not meet eligibility requirements under IDEA as emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, or other health impaired. The student is diagnosed as having ADD by a doctor, evaluated by a school team, and has a disability that limits the major life activity of learning.
---

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Adjust student seating.
- Use simple, concise instructions.
- Provide a peer tutor/helper.
- Teach compensatory strategies.
- Administer medication as prescribed.
- Monitor stress and fatigue; adjust activities.
- Modify assignments.
- Change instructional pace.
- Provide supervision during transitions, disruptions, and field trips.
- Use study guides, organizing tools.
- Modify testing procedures.
- Provide school counseling.
- Initiate frequent parent communication.
- Establish a school/home behavior management program.
- Provide training for staff and parents.
- Have the student use an organizer—train in organizational skills.
- Establish a cue between teacher and student.

- Assign chores/duties around room/school.
- Modify environment to avoid distractions.
- Have student work alone or in a study carrel.
- Highlight required or important information/directions.
- Provide a checklist for student, parents, and/or teacher to record assignments or completed tasks.
- Use a timer to assist student to focus on given task or number of problems in time allotted—stress they need to be done correctly.
- Have student re-state or write directions/instructions.
- Allow student to respond in variety of different modes, e.g., may place answers for tests on tape instead of paper.
- Modify student's work area with barriers.
- Inservice other students and staff about ADD/ADHD.
- Prescribe physical activity, exercise, etc.
- Determine trigger points and prevent action leading to trigger points.

CANCER
---------------

EXAMPLE: The student has been diagnosed with cancer. The condition has become substantially limiting to the major life activities of learning and caring for one's self.
---

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop health care emergency plan.
- Apply universal precautions.
- Adjust attendance policies.
- Limit number of classes taken; accommodate scheduling (breaks, etc.).
- Send teacher/tutor to hospital, as appropriate.
- Take whatever steps are necessary to accommodate student's involvement in extracurricular activities.
- Adjust activity level and expectations in classes based on physical limitations; don't require activities that are too physically taxing.

- Schedule daily monitoring or distribution of medications.
- Have accommodations available for transportation to and from school and extracurricular activities.
- Provide dietary accommodations.
- Shorten day, arrange for home tutoring following treatment.
- Provide additional set of texts and assignments to hospital school.
- Tape lessons.
- Modify schedule to include rest breaks.
- Provide counseling; establish peer support group.
- Adapt physical education.
- Provide access as needed to school health services.
- Provide awareness training to staff and other students about cancer.
- Furnish a peer tutor.
- Modify workload.
- Instigate a free pass system from the classroom.
- Adjust the proficiency requirement.
- Provide individual school counseling.
- Provide teachers with counseling, emphasizing positive attitudes.

CEREBRAL PALSY

EXAMPLE: The student has serious difficulties with fine and gross motor skills. A wheelchair is used for mobility. Cognitive skills are very good. The impairment substantially limits the major life activity of walking.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Initiate an emergency health care plan.
- Provide assistive technology devices (computer).
- Arrange for use of ramps and elevators.
- Allow for extra time between classes.
- Assist with carrying books, lunch trays, etc.
- Modify physical education curriculum.
- Monitor medication administration.

- Modify eating utensils.
- Educate peers/staff about cerebral palsy.

DIABETES MELLITUS

EXAMPLE: Diabetes impairs major life activities such as regulating blood glucose levels, eating, and caring for one's self. The student may take insulin and/or other medication and regularly monitor blood in order to help regulate blood glucose levels.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop an individualized health care and emergency plan.
- Allow for blood glucose checks as frequently as needed.
- Allow student to carry and use medical supplies, check blood glucose level, and respond to high and low levels, as needed.
- Provide free and unrestricted access to bathroom and drinking water to treat hyperglycemia.
- Provide quick access to snacks (carbohydrates/sugars) to treat hypoglycemia.
- Allow student to eat lunch at an appropriate time and have enough time to check blood glucose and finish the meal.
- Allow snacks, when necessary.
- Adjust attendance policies, accommodating for diabetes-related absences (doctor appointments or diabetes-related illness).
- Make school health care needs known to appropriate staff.
- Educate peers/staff
- Facilitate full participation in physical education, extracurricular activities, and field trips making sure trained personnel always in attendance.
- Allow for blood glucose checking before any testing or assessment. Allow delay of testing—with equal time and opportunity—until blood glucose levels are in range, if necessary.

EPILEPSY

EXAMPLE: The student is on medication for seizure activity but experiences several grand mal seizures each month. The condition substantially limits the major life activity of learning.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop emergency plan to deal with seizures.
- Train staff and students and prepare an emergency plan.
- Provide medical monitoring.
- Monitor and/or distribute medications.
- Change seating.
- Provide rest time and academic considerations following seizure.
- Arrange buddy system.
- Avoid using chalkboards.
- Provide an alternative recess.
- Provide clean rooms and avoid rooms with carpet.
- Provide education for peers and staff about epilepsy.
- Plan for academic make-up work so individual can catch up with peers.

OBESITY

EXAMPLE: A student has an eating disorder that may require special accommodations. Obesity may be considered a disability under Section 504 where it substantially impairs the major life activity of walking.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Provide special seating modifications.
- Make dietary modifications.
- Adjust meal schedule.
- Adapt physical education program.
- Allow extra time to get to classes.
- Educate peers about eating disorders.
- Adapt restrooms.
- Begin a peer support group.

- Allow more passing time.
- Ensure privacy for self-care.
- Provide school counseling.
- Provide for elevator privileges or other accommodations—for example, individuals in wheelchairs or with other disabilities that prevent them from using stairs.
- Arrange classroom furniture to provide room to negotiate and move around classroom seating.
- Arrange for peer counseling/helping to deal with esteem issues; also peer attitudes, teasing, etc.
- Address busing concerns to ensure room on buses for seating.
- Arrange to provide opportunities for the individual to participate in intramural events.
- Provide proper and safe transportation to and from school.
- Make any class location changes that may be needed.
- Promote out-of-school support.
- Adjust attendance policy.

ORTHOPEDICALLY IMPAIRED
--------------------------------

EXAMPLE: The student has limited mobility and is confined to a wheelchair. The impairment substantially limits the major life activity of walking and caring for one's self.
---

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop a health care and emergency plan.
- Implement an adaptive physical education program.
- Provide physical therapy at school.
- Check facilities regarding physical accessibility.
- Provide extra time to get to class.
- Supply a set of textbooks for home.
- Provide a copy of class notes from a peer.
- Practice emergency exit from school building.

PARENT WITH HEARING IMPAIRMENT

EXAMPLE: A parent is hearing impaired and requests access to school-sponsored activities.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Provide an interpreter for all school events of expected participation.
- Make arrangements for home-school contacts/communication.
- Assist with locating peer or support groups.
- Use written notes for communication.

STUDENT WITH SPECIAL HEALTH CARE NEEDS

EXAMPLE: The student has a special health care problem and requires clean intermittent catheterization twice each day. The impairment substantially limits the major life activity of caring for one's self.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop health care and emergency plan.
- Apply universal precautions.
- Provide trained personnel to perform special procedures.
- Provide student with private location and time to perform procedures.
- Involve school nurse, parents, teachers, and staff.
- Allow preferential seating.
- Modify recess/PE/transportation.
- Modify classroom environment.
- Reevaluate/update periodically.
- If necessary, modify attendance policy.
- Establish health alert—every staff member involved with this student is aware of the health problem and of proper procedures.
- Provide a beeper/paging system for trained personnel.
- Make available homebound services/instruction.
- Begin a disability awareness program upon parent or student request.

- Provide school counseling.
- Arrange for trained personnel on school field trips.

TEMPORARILY DISABLED
-----------------------------

EXAMPLE: A student was in an automobile accident and will be homebound and/or hospitalized for a period of time. The student is considered temporarily disabled and is substantially limited in the major life activity of walking.
---

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Provide duplicate sets of texts.
- Provide assignments to hospital school.
- Tape lessons.
- Provide homebound instruction.
- Schedule periodic home-school meetings.
- Arrange for student to leave class early to get to next class.
- Provide access to elevators.
- Excuse from or adapt physical education program.
- Arrange for a friend to assist student in getting from class to class (support network).
- Organize school counseling—trauma from accident.
- Provide physical therapy as necessary.
- Arrange for a tutor.
- Make transportation available.
- Arrange for proper medication.
- Arrange for peer notes.
- Provide help with getting lunch tray.
- Change seating arrangements to accommodate needs.
- Modify assignments depending on disability.
- Modify completion of assignment.
- Allow more time for test completion.
- Allow shortened days; adjust attendance policy.
- Address special accommodations of a wheelchair.

- Inservice staff and class and prepare an emergency care plan.
- Switch classrooms to main floor.
- Test verbally.
- Provide peer assistance for social involvement (keep student informed of social activities).

TOURETTES SYNDROME

EXAMPLE: The student exhibits inappropriate gestures and sounds in the classroom and hallways. The impairment substantially limits the major life activity of learning.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Provide student with a means of catching up on missed lessons.
- Pair with a fellow student for study.
- Educate other students about associated outbursts.
- Arrange for frequent parental interaction.
- Provide supervision for transition activities.
- Modify assignments.
- Provide alternative workspace.
- Initiate time out.
- Cue student of inappropriate behavior.
- Provide peer inservice.
- Furnish supervision while student is acting out.
- Inservice teachers about different discipline procedures.
- Provide appropriate space for the student to act out episode.

TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY

EXAMPLE: The student sustained a brain injury in an automobile accident. Many academic and motor skills have been lost from the injury. The condition substantially limits the major life activity of learning.

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Develop an emergency plan.
- Provide extended school year/time.
- Furnish memory/organizational aids.
- Provide alternative testing.
- Initiate tutoring programs.
- Inservice staff and peers about TBI.

VISUAL IMPAIRMENT
--------------------------

EXAMPLE: Hannah has been tested with a visual acuity or 20/200 in both eyes. She wears glasses but still has difficulty seeing. Hannah is entering 7th grade. Hannah has a physical impairment that substantially limits the major life activity of seeing and impacts her learning.
---

POSSIBLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- Provide seating accommodations,
- Modify assignments and tests,
- Provide an extra set of textbooks for home,
- Tape books or provide a personal reader,
- Adapt physical education curriculum,
- Allow extra time between classes,
- Arrange for someone else to take notes,
- Record lectures/presentations,
- Orientation and mobility training,
- Have teacher provide outlines of presentation,
- Modify curriculum for the lab classes.

- Let student give reports in oral form rather than written.
- Provide education to peers/teachers/others (bus drivers, cooks, etc.).
- Modify field trip experiences.
- Use simple, concise instructions.
- Provide a peer tutor/helper.
- Change instructional pace.
- Initiate frequent parent communication.
- Provide appropriate assistive technology.
- Arrange classroom furniture to provide room to negotiate and move around classroom seating.
- Allow preferential seating.
- Test verbally.

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS (OCR)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(PUBLISHED BY OCR)

An important responsibility of the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is to eliminate discrimination on the basis of disability against students with disabilities. OCR receives numerous complaints and inquiries in the area of elementary and secondary education involving Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 794 (Section 504). Most of these concern identification of students who are protected by Section 504 and the means to obtain an appropriate education for such students.

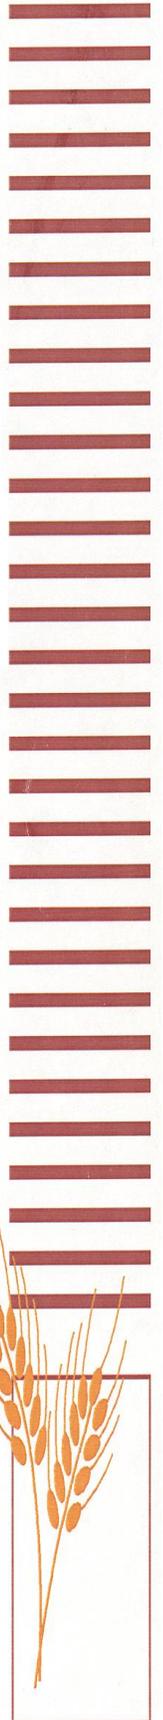

Section 504 is a federal law designed to protect the rights of individuals with disabilities in programs and activities that receive Federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education (ED). Section 504 provides: "No otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States . . . shall, solely by reason of her or his disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance . . . ."

OCR enforces Section 504 in programs and activities that receive Federal financial assistance from ED. Recipients of this Federal financial assistance include public school districts, institutions of higher education, and other state and local education agencies. The regulations implementing Section 504 in the context of educational institutions appear at 34 C.F.R. Part 104.

The Section 504 regulations require a school district to provide a "free appropriate public education" (FAPE) to each qualified student with a disability who is in the school district's jurisdiction, regardless of the nature or severity of the disability. Under Section 504, FAPE consists of the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services designed to meet the student's individual educational needs as adequately as the needs of nondisabled students are met.

This resource document clarifies pertinent requirements of Section 504.

For additional information, please contact the Office for Civil Rights.

INTERRELATIONSHIP OF IDEA AND SECTION 504

1. What is the jurisdiction of the Office for Civil Rights (OCR), the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSERS) and state departments of education/instruction regarding educational services to students with disabilities?

OCR, a component of the U.S. Department of Education, enforces Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, (Section 504) a civil rights statute which prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities. OCR also enforces Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II), which extends this prohibition against discrimination to the full range of state and local government services, programs, and activities (including public schools) regardless of whether they receive any Federal financial assistance. The Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (Amendments Act), effective January 1, 2009, amended the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and included a conforming amendment to the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act) that affects the meaning of disability in Section 504. The standards adopted by the ADA were designed not to restrict the rights or remedies available under Section 504. The Title II regulations applicable to free appropriate public education issues do not provide greater protection than applicable Section 504 regulations. This guidance focuses primarily on Section 504.

Section 504 prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education. Title II prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability by state and local governments. The Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSERS), also a component of the U.S. Department of Education, administers the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), a statute which funds special education programs. Each state educational agency is responsible for administering IDEA within the state and distributing the funds for special education programs. IDEA is a grant statute and attaches many specific conditions to the receipt of Federal IDEA funds. Section 504 and the ADA are antidiscrimination laws and do not provide any type of funding.

2. How does OCR get involved in disability issues within a school district?

OCR receives complaints from parents, students or advocates, conducts agency initiated compliance reviews, and provides technical assistance to school districts, parents or advocates.

3. Where can a school district, parent, or student get information on Section 504 or find out information about OCR's interpretation of Section 504 and Title II?

OCR provides technical assistance to school districts, parents, and students upon request. Additionally, regulations and publicly issued policy guidance is available on OCR's website, at <http://www.ed.gov/policy/rights/guid/ocr/disability.html>.

4. What services are available for students with disabilities under Section 504?

Section 504 requires recipients to provide to students with disabilities appropriate educational services designed to meet the individual needs of such students to the same extent as the needs of students without disabilities are met. An appropriate education for a student with a disability under the Section 504 regulations could consist of education in regular classrooms, education in regular classes with supplementary services, and/or special education and related services.

5. Does OCR examine individual placement or other educational decisions for students with disabilities?

Except in extraordinary circumstances, OCR does not review the result of individual placement or other educational decisions so long as the school district complies with the procedural requirements of Section 504 relating to identification and location of students with disabilities, evaluation of such students, and due process. Accordingly, OCR generally will not evaluate the content of a Section 504 plan or of an individualized education program (IEP); rather, any disagreement can be resolved through a due process hearing. The hearing would be conducted under Section 504 or the IDEA, whichever is applicable.

OCR will examine procedures by which school districts identify and evaluate students with disabilities and the procedural safeguards which those school districts provide students. OCR will also examine incidents in which students with disabilities are allegedly subjected to treatment which is different from the treatment to which similarly situated students without disabilities are subjected. Such incidents may involve the unwarranted exclusion of disabled students from educational programs and services.

6. What protections does OCR provide against retaliation?

Retaliatory acts are prohibited. A recipient is prohibited from intimidating, threatening, coercing, or discriminating against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Section 504.

7. Does OCR mediate complaints?

OCR does not engage in formal mediation. However, OCR may offer to facilitate mediation, referred to as “Early Complaint Resolution,” to resolve a complaint filed under Section 504. This approach brings the parties together so that they may discuss possible resolution of the complaint immediately. If both parties are willing to utilize this approach, OCR will work with the parties to facilitate resolution by providing each an understanding of pertinent legal standards and possible remedies. An agreement reached between the parties is not monitored by OCR.

8. What are the appeal rights with OCR?

OCR is committed to a high quality resolution of every case. If a complainant has questions or concerns about an OCR determination, he or she may contact the OCR staff person whose name appears in the complaint resolution letter. The complainant should address his or her concerns with as much specificity as possible, focusing on factual or legal questions that would change the resolution of the case. Should a complainant continue to have questions or concerns, he or she is advised to send a request for reconsideration to the Director of the responsible OCR field office. The Director will review the appropriateness of the complaint resolution. If the complainant remains dissatisfied, he or she may submit an appeal in writing to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement. The decision of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Enforcement constitutes OCR’s final decision.

9. What does noncompliance with Section 504 mean?

A school district is out of compliance when it is violating any provision of the Section 504 statute or regulations.

10. What sanctions can OCR impose on a school district that is out of compliance?

OCR initially attempts to bring the school district into voluntary compliance through negotiation of a corrective action agreement. If OCR is unable to achieve voluntary compliance, OCR will initiate enforcement action. OCR may: (1) initiate administrative proceedings to terminate Department of Education financial assistance to the recipient; or (2) refer the case to the Department of Justice for judicial proceedings.

11. Who has ultimate authority to enforce Section 504?

In the educational context, OCR has been given administrative authority to enforce Section 504. Section 504 is a Federal statute that may be enforced through the Department's administrative process or through the Federal court system. In addition, a person may at any time file a private lawsuit against a school district. The Section 504 regulations do not contain a requirement that a person file a complaint with OCR and exhaust his or her administrative remedies before filing a private lawsuit.

STUDENTS PROTECTED UNDER SECTION 504

Section 504 covers qualified students with disabilities who attend schools receiving Federal financial assistance. To be protected under Section 504, a student must be determined to: (1) have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; or (2) have a record of such an impairment; or (3) be regarded as having such an impairment. Section 504 requires that school districts provide a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to qualified students in their jurisdictions who have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

12. What is a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity?

The determination of whether a student has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity must be made on the basis of an individual inquiry. The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.3(j)(2)(i) defines a physical or mental impairment as any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The regulatory provision does not set forth an exhaustive list of specific diseases and conditions that may constitute physical or mental impairments because of the difficulty of ensuring the comprehensiveness of such a list.

Major life activities, as defined in the Section 504 regulations at 34 C.F.R. 104.3(j)(2)(ii), include functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working. This list is not exhaustive. Other functions can be major life activities for purposes of Section 504. In the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), Congress provided additional examples of general activities that are major life activities, including eating, sleeping, standing, lifting, bending, reading, concentrating, thinking, and communicating. Congress also provided a non-exhaustive list of examples of "major bodily functions" that are major life activities, such as the functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine, and reproductive functions. The Section 504 regulatory provision, though not as comprehensive as the Amendments Act, is still valid – the Section 504 regulatory provision's list of examples of major life activities is not exclusive, and an activity or function not specifically listed in the Section 504 regulatory provision can nonetheless be a major life activity.

13. Does the meaning of the phrase "qualified student with a disability" differ on the basis of a student's educational level, i.e., elementary and secondary versus postsecondary?

Yes. At the elementary and secondary educational level, a "qualified student with a disability" is a student with a disability who is: of an age at which students without disabilities are provided elementary and secondary educational services; of an age at which it is mandatory under state law to provide elementary and secondary educational services to students with disabilities; or a student to whom a state is required to provide a free appropriate public education under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

At the postsecondary educational level, a qualified student with a disability is a student with a disability who meets the academic and technical standards requisite for admission or participation in the institution's educational program or activity.

14. Does the nature of services to which a student is entitled under Section 504 differ by educational level?

Yes. Public elementary and secondary recipients are required to provide a free appropriate public education to qualified students with disabilities. Such an education consists of regular or special education and related aids and services designed to meet the individual educational needs of students with disabilities as adequately as the needs of students without disabilities are met.

At the postsecondary level, the recipient is required to provide students with appropriate academic adjustments and auxiliary aids and services that are necessary to afford an individual with a disability an equal opportunity to participate in a school's program. Recipients are not required to make adjustments or provide aids or services that would result in a fundamental alteration of a recipient's program or impose an undue burden.

15. Once a student is identified as eligible for services under Section 504, is that student always entitled to such services?

Yes, as long as the student remains eligible. The protections of Section 504 extend only to individuals who meet the regulatory definition of a person with a disability. If a recipient school district re-evaluates a student in accordance with the Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35 and determines that the student's mental or physical impairment no longer substantially limits his/her ability to learn or any other major life activity, the student is no longer eligible for services under Section 504.

16. Are current illegal users of drugs excluded from protection under Section 504?

Generally, yes. Section 504 excludes from the definition of a student with a disability, and from Section 504 protection, any student who is currently engaging in the illegal use of drugs when a covered entity acts on the basis of such use. (There are exceptions for persons in rehabilitation programs who are no longer engaging in the illegal use of drugs).

17. Are current users of alcohol excluded from protection under Section 504?

No. Section 504's definition of a student with a disability does not exclude users of alcohol. However, Section 504 allows schools to take disciplinary action against students with disabilities using drugs or alcohol to the same extent as students without disabilities.

EVALUATION

At the elementary and secondary school level, determining whether a child is a qualified disabled student under Section 504 begins with the evaluation process. Section 504 requires the use of evaluation procedures that ensure that children are not misclassified, unnecessarily labeled as having a disability, or incorrectly placed, based on inappropriate selection, administration, or interpretation of evaluation materials.

18. What is an appropriate evaluation under Section 504?

Recipient school districts must establish standards and procedures for initial evaluations and periodic re-evaluations of students who need or are believed to need special education and/or related services because of disability. The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35(b) requires school districts to individually evaluate a student before classifying the student as having a disability or providing the student with special education. Tests used for this purpose must be selected and administered so as best to ensure that the test results accurately reflect the student's aptitude or achievement or other factor being measured rather than reflect the student's disability, except where those are the factors being measured. Section 504 also requires that tests and other evaluation materials include those tailored to evaluate the specific areas of educational need and not merely those designed to provide a single intelligence quotient. The tests and other evaluation materials must be validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and appropriately administered by trained personnel.

19. How much is enough information to document that a student has a disability?

At the elementary and secondary education level, the amount of information required is determined by the multi-disciplinary committee gathered to evaluate the student. The committee should include persons knowledgeable about the student, the meaning of the evaluation data, and the placement options. The committee members must determine if they have enough information to make a knowledgeable decision as to whether or not the student has a disability. The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35(c) requires that school districts draw from a variety of sources in the evaluation process so that the possibility of error is minimized. The information obtained from all such sources must be documented and all significant factors related to the student's learning process must be considered. These sources and factors may include aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social and cultural background, and adaptive behavior. In evaluating a student suspected of having a disability, it is unacceptable to rely on presumptions and stereotypes regarding persons with disabilities or classes of such persons. Compliance with the IDEA regarding the group of persons present when an evaluation or placement decision is made is satisfactory under Section 504.

20. What process should a school district use to identify students eligible for services under Section 504? Is it the same process as that employed in identifying students eligible for services under the IDEA?

School districts may use the same process to evaluate the needs of students under Section 504 as they use to evaluate the needs of students under the IDEA. If school districts choose to adopt a separate process for evaluating the needs of students under Section 504, they must follow the requirements for evaluation specified in the Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35.

21. May school districts consider "mitigating measures" used by a student in determining whether the student has a disability under Section 504?

No. As of January 1, 2009, school districts, in determining whether a student has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits that student in a major life activity, must not consider the ameliorating effects of any mitigating measures that student is using. This is a change from prior law. Before January 1, 2009, school districts had to consider a student's use of mitigating measures in determining whether that student had a physical or mental impairment that substantially limited that student in a major life activity. In the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), however, Congress specified that the ameliorative effects of mitigating measures must not be considered in determining if a person is an individual with a disability.

Congress did not define the term "mitigating measures" but rather provided a non-exhaustive list of "mitigating measures." The mitigating measures are as follows: medication; medical supplies, equipment or appliances; low-vision devices (which do not include ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses); prosthetics (including limbs and devices); hearing aids and cochlear implants or other implantable hearing devices; mobility devices; oxygen therapy equipment and supplies; use of assistive technology; reasonable accommodations or auxiliary aids or services; and learned behavioral or adaptive neurological modifications.

Congress created one exception to the mitigating measures analysis. The ameliorative effects of the mitigating measures of ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses shall be considered in determining if an impairment substantially limits a major life activity. "Ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses" are lenses that are intended to fully correct visual acuity or eliminate refractive error, whereas "low-vision devices" (listed above) are devices that magnify, enhance, or otherwise augment a visual image.

22. Does OCR endorse a single formula or scale that measures substantial limitation?

No. The determination of substantial limitation must be made on a case-by-case basis with respect to each individual student. The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R. 104.35 (c) requires that a group of knowledgeable persons draw upon information from a variety of sources in making this determination.

23. Are there any impairments which automatically mean that a student has a disability under Section 504?

No. An impairment in and of itself is not a disability. The impairment must substantially limit one or more major life activities in order to be considered a disability under Section 504.

24. Can a medical diagnosis suffice as an evaluation for the purpose of providing FAPE?

No. A physician's medical diagnosis may be considered among other sources in evaluating a student with an impairment or believed to have an impairment which substantially limits a major life activity. Other sources to be considered, along with the medical diagnosis, include aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social and cultural background, and adaptive behavior. As noted in FAQ 22, the Section 504 regulations require school districts to draw upon a variety of sources in interpreting evaluation data and making placement decisions.

25. Does a medical diagnosis of an illness automatically mean a student can receive services under Section 504?

No. A medical diagnosis of an illness does not automatically mean a student can receive services under Section 504. The illness must cause a substantial limitation on the student's ability to learn or another major life activity. For example, a student who has a physical or mental impairment would not be considered a student in need of services under Section 504 if the impairment does not in any way limit the student's ability to learn or other major life activity, or only results in some minor limitation in that regard.

26. How should a recipient school district handle an outside independent evaluation? Do all data brought to a multi-disciplinary committee need to be considered and given equal weight?

The results of an outside independent evaluation may be one of many sources to consider. Multi-disciplinary committees must draw from a variety of sources in the evaluation process so that the possibility of error is minimized. All significant factors related to the subject student's learning process must be considered. These sources and factors include aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social and cultural background, and adaptive behavior, among others. Information from all sources must be documented and considered by knowledgeable committee members. The weight of the information is determined by the committee given the student's individual circumstances.

27. What should a recipient school district do if a parent refuses to consent to an initial evaluation under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), but demands a Section 504 plan for a student without further evaluation?

A school district must evaluate a student prior to providing services under Section 504. Section 504 requires informed parental permission for initial evaluations. If a parent refuses consent for an initial evaluation and a recipient school district suspects a student has a disability, the IDEA and Section 504 provide that school districts may use due process hearing procedures to seek to override the parents' denial of consent.

28. Who in the evaluation process makes the ultimate decision regarding a student's eligibility for services under Section 504?

The Section 504 regulatory provision at 34 C.F.R.104.35 (c) (3) requires that school districts ensure that the determination that a student is eligible for special education and/or related aids and services be made by a group of persons, including persons knowledgeable about the meaning of the evaluation data and knowledgeable about the placement options. If a parent disagrees with the determination, he or she may request a due process hearing.

29. Once a student is identified as eligible for services under Section 504, is there an annual or triennial review requirement? If so, what is the appropriate process to be used? Or is it appropriate to keep the same Section 504 plan in place indefinitely after a student has been identified?

Periodic re-evaluation is required. This may be conducted in accordance with the IDEA regulations, which require re-evaluation at three-year intervals (unless the parent and public agency agree that re-evaluation is unnecessary) or more frequently if conditions warrant, or if the child's parent or teacher requests a re-evaluation, but not more than once a year (unless the parent and public agency agree otherwise).

30. Is a Section 504 re-evaluation similar to an IDEA re-evaluation? How often should it be done?

Yes. Section 504 specifies that re-evaluations in accordance with the IDEA is one means of compliance with Section 504. The Section 504 regulations require that re-evaluations be conducted periodically. Section 504 also requires a school district to conduct a re-evaluation prior to a significant change of placement. OCR considers an exclusion from the educational program of more than 10 school days a significant change of placement. OCR would also consider transferring a student from one type of program to another or terminating or significantly reducing a related service a significant change in placement.

31. What is reasonable justification for referring a student for evaluation for services under Section 504?

School districts may always use regular education intervention strategies to assist students with difficulties in school. Section 504 requires recipient school districts to refer a student for an evaluation for possible special education or related aids and services or modification to regular education if the student, because of disability, needs or is believed to need such services.

32. A student is receiving services that the school district maintains are necessary under Section 504 in order to provide the student with an appropriate education. The student's parent no longer wants the student to receive those services. If the parent wishes to withdraw the student from a Section 504 plan, what can the school district do to ensure continuation of services?

The school district may initiate a Section 504 due process hearing to resolve the dispute if the district believes the student needs the services in order to receive an appropriate education.

33. A student has a disability referenced in the IDEA, but does not require special education services. Is such a student eligible for services under Section 504?

The student may be eligible for services under Section 504. The school district must determine whether the student has an impairment which substantially limits his or her ability to learn or another major life activity and, if so, make an individualized determination of the child's educational needs for regular or special education or related aids or services. For example, such a student may receive adjustments in the regular classroom.

34. How should a recipient school district view a temporary impairment?

A temporary impairment does not constitute a disability for purposes of Section 504 unless its severity is such that it results in a substantial limitation of one or more major life activities for an extended period of time. The issue of whether a temporary impairment is substantial enough to be a disability must be resolved on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration both the duration (or expected duration) of the impairment and the extent to which it actually limits a major life activity of the affected individual.

In the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), Congress clarified that an individual is not “regarded as” an individual with a disability if the impairment is transitory and minor. A transitory impairment is an impairment with an actual or expected duration of 6 months or less.

35. Is an impairment that is episodic or in remission a disability under Section 504?

Yes, under certain circumstances. In the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), Congress clarified that an impairment that is episodic or in remission is a disability if it would substantially limit a major life activity when active. A student with such an impairment is entitled to a free appropriate public education under Section 504.

PLACEMENT

Once a student is identified as being eligible for regular or special education and related aids or services, a decision must be made regarding the type of services the student needs.

36. If a student is eligible for services under both the IDEA and Section 504, must a school district develop both an individualized education program (IEP) under the IDEA and a Section 504 plan under Section 504?

No. If a student is eligible under IDEA, he or she must have an IEP. Under the Section 504 regulations, one way to meet Section 504 requirements for a free appropriate public education is to implement an IEP.

37. Must a school district develop a Section 504 plan for a student who either "has a record of disability" or is "regarded as disabled"?

No. In public elementary and secondary schools, unless a student actually has an impairment that substantially limits a major life activity, the mere fact that a student has a "record of" or is "regarded as" disabled is insufficient, in itself, to trigger those Section 504 protections that require the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE). This is consistent with the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), in which Congress clarified that an individual who meets the definition of disability solely by virtue of being “regarded as” disabled is not entitled to reasonable accommodations or the reasonable modification of policies, practices or procedures. The phrases "has a record of disability" and "is regarded as disabled" are meant to reach the situation in which a student either does not currently have or never had a disability, but is treated by others as such.

As noted in FAQ 34, in the Amendments Act (see FAQ 1), Congress clarified that an individual is not “regarded as” an individual with a disability if the impairment is transitory and minor. A transitory impairment is an impairment with an actual or expected duration of 6 months or less.

38. What is the receiving school district's responsibility under Section 504 toward a student with a Section 504 plan who transfers from another district?

If a student with a disability transfers to a district from another school district with a Section 504 plan, the receiving district should review the plan and supporting documentation. If a group of persons at the receiving school district, including persons knowledgeable about the meaning of the evaluation data and knowledgeable about the placement options determines that the plan is appropriate, the district is required to implement the plan. If the district determines that the plan is inappropriate, the district is to evaluate the student consistent with the Section 504 procedures at 34 C.F.R. 104.35 and determine which educational program is appropriate for the student. There is no Section 504 bar to the receiving school district honoring the previous IEP during the interim period. Information about IDEA requirements when a student transfers is available from the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services at <http://idea.ed.gov/explore/view/p/%2Croot%2Cdynamic%2CQaCorner%2C3%2C>

39. What are the responsibilities of regular education teachers with respect to implementation of Section 504 plans? What are the consequences if the district fails to implement the plans?

Regular education teachers must implement the provisions of Section 504 plans when those plans govern the teachers' treatment of students for whom they are responsible. If the teachers fail to implement the plans, such failure can cause the school district to be in noncompliance with Section 504.

40. What is the difference between a regular education intervention plan and a Section 504 plan?

A regular education intervention plan is appropriate for a student who does not have a disability or is not suspected of having a disability but may be facing challenges in school. School districts vary in how they address performance problems of regular education students. Some districts employ teams at individual schools, commonly referred to as "building teams." These teams are designed to provide regular education classroom teachers with instructional support and strategies for helping students in need of assistance. These teams are typically composed of regular and special education teachers who provide ideas to classroom teachers on methods for helping students experiencing academic or behavioral problems. The team usually records its ideas in a written regular education intervention plan. The team meets with an affected student's classroom teacher(s) and recommends strategies to address the student's problems within the regular education environment. The team then follows the responsible teacher(s) to determine whether the student's performance or behavior has improved. In addition to building teams, districts may utilize other regular education intervention methods, including before-school and after-school programs, tutoring programs, and mentoring programs.

PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS

Public elementary and secondary schools must employ procedural safeguards regarding the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of persons who, because of disability, need or are believed to need special instruction or related services.

41. Must a recipient school district obtain parental consent prior to conducting an initial evaluation?

Yes. OCR has interpreted Section 504 to require districts to obtain parental permission for initial evaluations. If a district suspects a student needs or is believed to need special instruction or related services and parental consent is withheld, the IDEA and Section 504 provide that districts may use due process hearing procedures to seek to override the parents' denial of consent for an initial evaluation.

42. If so, in what form is consent required?

Section 504 is silent on the form of parental consent required. OCR has accepted written consent as compliance. IDEA as well as many state laws also require written consent prior to initiating an evaluation.

43. What can a recipient school district do if a parent withholds consent for a student to secure services under Section 504 after a student is determined eligible for services?

Section 504 neither prohibits nor requires a school district to initiate a due process hearing to override a parental refusal to consent with respect to the initial provision of special education and related services. Nonetheless, school districts should consider that IDEA no longer permits school districts to initiate a due process hearing to override a parental refusal to consent to the initial provision of services.

44. What procedural safeguards are required under Section 504?

Recipient school districts are required to establish and implement procedural safeguards that include notice, an opportunity for parents to review relevant records, an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the student's parents or guardian, representation by counsel and a review procedure.

45. What is a recipient school district's responsibility under Section 504 to provide information to parents and students about its evaluation and placement process?

Section 504 requires districts to provide notice to parents explaining any evaluation and placement decisions affecting their children and explaining the parents' right to review educational records and appeal any decision regarding evaluation and placement through an impartial hearing.

46. Is there a mediation requirement under Section 504?

No.

TERMINOLOGY

The following terms may be confusing and/or are frequently used incorrectly in the elementary and secondary school context.

Equal access: equal opportunity of a qualified person with a disability to participate in or benefit from educational aid, benefits, or services

Free appropriate public education (FAPE): a term used in the elementary and secondary school context; for purposes of Section 504, refers to the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services that are designed to meet individual educational needs of students with disabilities as adequately as the needs of students without disabilities are met and is based upon adherence to procedures that satisfy the Section 504 requirements pertaining to educational setting, evaluation and placement, and procedural safeguards

Placement: a term used in the elementary and secondary school context; refers to regular and/or special educational program in which a student receives educational and/or related services

Reasonable accommodation: a term used in the employment context to refer to modifications or adjustments employers make to a job application process, the work environment, the manner or circumstances under which the position held or desired is customarily performed, or that enable a covered entity's employee with a disability to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment; this term is sometimes used incorrectly to refer to related aids and services in the elementary and secondary school context or to refer to academic adjustments, reasonable modifications, and auxiliary aids and services in the postsecondary school context

Reasonable modifications: under a regulatory provision implementing Title II of the ADA, public entities are required to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures when the modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination on the basis of disability, unless the public entity can demonstrate that making the modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of the service, program, or activity

Related services: a term used in the elementary and secondary school context to refer to developmental, corrective, and other supportive services, including psychological, counseling and medical diagnostic services and transportation

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS REGARDING SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973

Section 504 is an Act that prohibits discrimination against persons with a disability in any program that receives federal financial assistance. The Act defines a person with a disability as anyone who

Has a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities (major life activities include activities such as walking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, seeing, speaking, caring for one's self, working, helping, eating, sleeping, standing, lifting, bending, and operation of a bodily function).

In order to fulfill its obligations under Section 504, the school recognizes a responsibility to avoid discrimination in policies and practices regarding its personnel and students. No discrimination against any person with a disability will knowingly be permitted in any of the programs and practices in the school system.

The school has specific responsibilities under the Act, which include the responsibility to identify, evaluate and, if the student is determined to be identified under Section 504, to afford access to appropriate educational services.

If the parent or guardian disagrees with the determination made by the professional staff of the school, he/she has a right to a hearing with an impartial hearing officer.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) also specifies rights related to educational records. This Act gives the parent or guardian the right to do the following:

- Inspect and review his/her student's educational records.
- Make copies of these records.
- Receive a list of all individuals having access to those records.
- Ask for an explanation of any item in the records.
- Ask for an amendment to any report on the grounds that it is inaccurate, misleading, or violates the student's rights.
- Request a hearing on the issue if the school refuses to make the amendment.

SECTION 504 PARENT RIGHTS

School: _____ Date: _____

The intent of this notice is to keep you fully informed concerning decisions about your student and to inform you of your rights if you disagree with any of these decisions.

If your student is identified for Section 504 services, among other things, you have the right to the following actions:

1. Have your student take part in and receive benefits from public education programs without discrimination based on a disability.
2. Receive written notice with respect to identification, evaluation, or placement of your student.
3. Have your student receive a free and appropriate public education. This includes the right to be educated with other students without disabilities to the maximum extent appropriate.
4. Have your student educated in facilities and receive services comparable to those provided students without disabilities.
5. Have evaluation, educational, and placement decisions made based on a variety of information sources and by individuals who know your student, the evaluation data, and placement options.
6. If eligible, have your student receive accommodations under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
7. Give your student an equal opportunity to participate in appropriate nonacademic and extracurricular activities offered by the school.
8. Examine all relevant records relating to decisions regarding your student's identification, evaluation, educational program, and placement.
9. Obtain copies of educational records at a reasonable cost if the fee would effectively deny you access to the records.

10. Receive a response from the school to reasonable requests for explanations and interpretations of your student's records.
11. Request amendment of your student's educational records if there is reasonable cause to believe that they are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy rights of your student. If the school refuses this request, it shall notify you within a reasonable time and advise you of the right to a hearing.
12. Request mediation or an impartial due process hearing related to decisions regarding your student's identification, evaluation, educational program, or placement. You and your student may take part in the hearing and have an attorney represent you.
13. File a local grievance or complaint.

SECTION 504 EVALUATION PROCEDURES

If the school suspects a student has a disability, then parental notice is given and an individual evaluation is conducted. The following are some considerations for meeting 504 evaluation requirements:

1. The evaluation team must be knowledgeable about the student and the disability and be familiar with the evaluation data and placement options.
2. Each evaluation should be tailored to the specific needs of the student.
3. The parents need to be notified and provide written consent before the evaluation is conducted.
4. Tests and other evaluation materials should be validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and administered by trained personnel in conformance with the instructions provided by their producer.
5. Tests and other evaluation materials include those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need.
6. Tests are selected to ensure that when a test is administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills, the results accurately reflect whatever the test is designed to measure.
7. In interpreting evaluation data and in making placement or accommodation decisions, a school should draw on information from a variety of sources, including aptitude and achievement tests, interest inventories, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social or cultural background, and adaptive behavior.
8. A reevaluation should be conducted before making any significant change in placement. A reevaluation procedure consistent with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act is one means of meeting this requirement.

The school may refuse to conduct an evaluation, but it has the obligation to inform the parents of the reasons for the refusal and their right to file a grievance, contact the Office for Civil Rights, or request a due process hearing.

Utility of Form – To be used at the Section 504 committee meeting for documenting identification and evaluation results.
