

Describe the qualities and characteristics of a good RW context/task. Give an example that you have used with students in a middle or high school classroom.