As an entity enrolling to provide Rehabilitative Services under the North Dakota Medicaid Program, I attest that I understand the following requirements:

- Rehabilitative Services are designed to provide a group of needed mental health services to Medicaid recipients in order to restore individuals to their highest possible functioning level.
- Rehabilitative Services are limited to individuals in families that are in crisis with risk of major disruption, individuals who are at risk of entering or reentering a mental health or hospital facility, services provided by Human Service Center staff that are not otherwise Other Licensed Practitioners in settings outside the Center, and services provided to individuals who have discharged from inpatient psychiatric treatment.
- Recipients of Rehabilitative Services must be eligible for the North Dakota Medicaid Program.
- Other than Screening, Triage, and Referral Leading to Assessment, Forensic Interviews, Behavioral Assessment, and Crisis Stabilization, the service must be recommended by a practitioner of the healing arts within the scope of their practice under state law.
- Recipients of Rehabilitative Services must have a mental health disorder, and must have one of the following circumstances:
 - (a) Be at risk of entering or reentering a mental health facility or hospital and demonstrates a score of moderate or above based on the WHODAS 2.0; or
 - (b) Be from a household that is in crisis and at risk of major dysfunction that could lead to disruption of the current family makeup; or
 - (c) Be in a family that has experienced dysfunction that has resulted in the disruption of the family.
- The recipient of Rehabilitative Services is in need of mental health, behavioral intervention services that are provided by qualified entities.
- A Plan of Care will be maintained for each recipient of Rehabilitative Services.
- Rehabilitative Services must be provided to, or directed exclusively toward, the treatment of the Medicaid eligible individual.
- Rehabilitative Services are limited to the billing codes published on the North Dakota Medicaid Rehabilitative Services fee schedule; and are limited to be provided by entities enrolled with North Dakota Medicaid to provide Rehabilitative Services.

- Intensive in-home for Children can only be provided in the member's home.
- Rehabilitative services do not include:
 - Room and board services;
 - Services provided to residents of institutions for mental disease;
 - Services that are covered elsewhere in the State Medicaid plan;
 - Educational, vocational and job training services;
 - Recreational and social activities;
 - Habilitation services;
 - Services provided to inmates of public institutions;
 - Services rendered in schools as part of a child's Individualized Education Program.
