Filing of the articles of amendment with the Secretary of State provides protection of the corporate name in North Dakota. However; if a mark is registered with the Patent and Trademark Office in Washington, D.C., the federal registration may supersede the protection afforded by state law.

COMMERCIAL OR NONCOMMERCIAL REGISTERED AGENT: A corporation must continuously maintain a commercial or noncommercial registered agent. A corporation cannot serve itself as its registered agent. If an alternate commercial or noncommercial registered agent is being appointed, or if the address of the noncommercial registered agent is being changed, the change can be reflected on this amendment.

A commercial registered agent must be registered as a commercial registered agent with the North Dakota Secretary of State. The appointed agent can verify their status as a commercial registered agent from their acknowledged filing and from the list of commercial registered agents maintained on the Secretary of State's website at www.nd.gov/sos

A noncommercial registered agent may be one of the following:

a) An individual residing in North Dakota,
b) A domestic or foreign corporation, or
c) A domestic or foreign limited liability company.

If a corporation or limited liability company is named as a noncommercial registered agent, provide the "correct" name of the organization.

   Seek the approval of the party before naming them as the commercial or noncommercial registered agent. Proof of the approval is not required to be filed with the Secretary of State. Failure to seek consent from the party named as agent may result in involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

If the name of a commercial registered agent is not the same as registered by the commercial registered agent, the name will be corrected by the Secretary of State when the document is reviewed. If another corporation or limited liability company is appointed as registered agent and the name of that organization is not the same as registered, the name will be corrected by the Secretary of State when the document is reviewed. If an address is provided for an appointed commercial registered agent, that address will be removed by the Secretary of State.
