POLICY CONSIDERATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSAL

1. A bankruptcy clause should be included in leases. An example of such a clause follows:

"Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in this lease, in the event the Lessee is closed or taken over by the banking authority of the State of North Dakota, or other bank supervisory authority, the Lessor may terminate the lease only with the concurrence of such banking authority or other bank supervisory authority, and any such authority shall in any event have the election either to continue or to terminate the lease: Provided, that in the event this lease is terminated, the maximum claim of Lessor for damages or indemnity for injury resulting from the rejection or abandonment of the unexpired term of the lease shall in no event be in an amount exceeding the rent reserved by the lease, without acceleration, for the year next succeeding the date of the surrender of the premises to the Lessor, or the date for re-entry of the Lessor, whichever first occurs, whether before or after the closing of the bank, plus an amount equal to the unpaid rent accrued, without acceleration up to such date."

2. The bank, in establishing this new office, will develop external security procedures and install security devices in compliance with Part 326 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's Rules and Regulations.
3. Any payment or arrangement to/with any bank-related party such as a director, officer, 5% or more shareholder or their relatives or business interests must be fully detailed and supported.
4. A determination must be made as to whether the application involves a district, site, building, structure, or object which is included in or eligible for inclusion in the National Register of Historic Places. Under certain circumstances, the applicant may be requested to aid in the determination.
