   b. "The satellite video or Internet livestock auction market named in this contract voluntarily authorizes the North Dakota Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's duly authorized designee, access to inspect and to copy any and all financial information and records of the market held by market and those persons, institutions, and agencies identified as "References" with the Department. The information and records shall be reasonably available for inspection upon request of the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee, and may be used by the North Dakota Department of Agriculture in the course of licensing, relicensing, or investigation of the application. Any information or records gained by the Commissioner through inspection authorized by this release is confidential. Any disclosure of information or records gained by the Commissioner through inspection authorized by this release is prohibited. The Commissioner of Agriculture may, however furnish the information or records gained through inspection authorized by this release to the Attorney General and other State agencies, and to any prosecuting officials requiring the information or records for use in pursuit of official duties."

NOTE: Failure to notify the North Dakota Department of Agriculture of termination, rescission, breach, or material alteration of the contract is deemed to be a failure to keep and maintain suitable records with the department and is deemed to be a false entry of statement of fact in an application filed with the department and which may result in the license being suspended or revoked.
