NARRATIVE: On April 4, 2020 at 4:14 pm, the Montana Highway Patrol entered North Dakota in pursuit of Cordelus Tyrone Hunter 39, Sacramento, CA, for a traffic violation. The McKenzie County Sheriff's Office took over as primary on the pursuit. Deputies attempted to stop Peterson on Highway 200 just east of the State line. Hunter fled east on Highway 200 for about 10 miles. McKenzie County Deputies and the North Dakota Highway Patrol applied spike strips and disabled Hunter's tires. Hunter attempted to avoid the spikes which caused him to enter the north ditch and overturn his vehicle twice. Hunter was transported by ambulance to the Sidney Montana Health Center with non-life-threatening injuries. Hunter's passenger was not injured.

This crash and pursuit remain under investigation by the NDHP and McKenzie County Sheriff's Department.
