NARRATIVE: A Ford Fusion was traveling east bound on Highway 46 towards Enderlin. A male driver was outside of his Chevrolet Cavalier attempting to push it to Enderlin as it was disabled. The driver of the Ford Fusion was unable to see the Cavalier. The Ford Fusion struck the Chevrolet Cavalier in the rear trunk area and continued down the driver side. The driver of the Cavalier was pushing from the front driver side door area. As the impact occurred, the driver of the Cavalier was struck and thrown into the ditch. Both vehicles and the driver of the Cavalier came to rest in the south ditch of Highway 46. The driver of the Cavalier was transported to Sanford Hospital in Fargo to be treated for his injuries sustained in the crash. The crash is under investigation by the North Dakota Highway Patrol.
