NARRATIVE: The 2002 Ford F250 was traveling eastbound on Interstate 94. The weather was snow, blowing snow, and the roads were snow covered. Duane Sattler lost control and entered the median. The trailer disconnected from the truck and rolled in the median before coming to rest facing south in the westbound lanes. The F250 continued across the westbound lanes before rolling in the north ditch and coming to rest of its roof facing the west. The three occupants were transported to CHI St. Alexius Dickinson for injuries sustained in the crash.

This crash remains under investigation by the North Dakota Highway Patrol.
