NARRATIVE: The GMC Yukon, Toyota Corolla, Buick Lacrosse and Suzuki XL7 were slowed or stopped along westbound Interstate 94 as traffic was entering a construction zone. The driver of the 2016 Ford F-150 was distracted in his vehicle and failed to slow with traffic. The Ford F-150 struck the GMC Yukon, the Toyota Corolla and then the Suzuki XL7. After being struck by the Ford F-150, the Toyota Corolla struck the Buick.

The driver of the Ford was not injured. The driver of the Toyota Corolla was transported by Ambulance to CHI – St Alexius' Hospital in Bismarck, ND. The driver and passenger of the GMC Yukon were not injured. The driver of the Buick was treated for minor injuries and the passengers were not injured. The driver of the Suzuki was treated for minor injuries.

Traffic along westbound Interstate 94 in the area was slowed due to congestion at the crash scene.

This crash remains under investigation by the North Dakota Highway Patrol.
