NDHP, First Responders to Hold Food and Toy Drive

NARRATIVE: The North Dakota Highway Patrol, along with other first responder agencies, are teaming up to hold a Food and Toy Drive in Fargo, Bismarck, and Williston on Saturday, Dec. 11 from 8 am until 6 pm. Toys and food that is collected will be donated to local families and organizations that provide support and services to families and individuals in need to include the McKinney Vento Program, Toys for Tots, and Heaven's Helper Soup Kitchen. Financial contributions will be used to purchase additional food and toys.

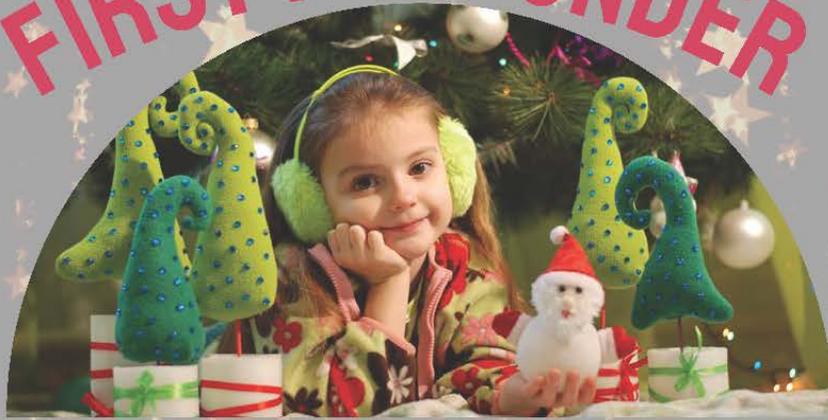

Law enforcement will be collecting items at Fargo Walmart, 13th Avenue; Bismarck Walmart, South; and Williston Walmart. Other agencies taking part include U.S. Border Patrol; Cass County Sheriff's Office; Burleigh County Sheriff's Office; Williams County Sheriff's Office; North Dakota Bureau of Criminal Investigation; North Dakota Game and Fish; North Dakota Department of Emergency Services; Bismarck Police Department; Williston Police Department; and Williams County Emergency Management. Sickies Garage, Williston Auto and Williston Coyote Radio are also assisting.

Local media is welcome to contact Sgt. Adam Malafa for information or to stop at the location from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm for onsite interviews.
