Pursuit Near Reynolds Area

NARRATIVE: On March 16, 2021 at approximately 10:48 AM a North Dakota State Trooper stopped a vehicle for speeding near Thompson on Interstate 29 southbound. As the Trooper was walking up to the vehicle, the female driver took off from the traffic stop and the Trooper began pursuing the fleeing motorist. The driver reached a top speed of 120 mph. The female driver went through the median and proceeded northbound, then again went through the median and proceeded southbound on Interstate 29. The female driver then took the Mayville exit when the State Trooper used a Pursuit Intervention Technique (PIT) to stop the pursuit. The driver, identified as Madison Freeman, was stopped, and taken into custody without further incident. There are pending charges for this incident.
