NARRATIVE: A Mack semi-truck pulling a propane tanker operated by (Mock) was traveling eastbound on Hwy 23. Mock slowed down to make a turn onto northbound Hwy 8. A Chevy Silverado being operated by (Walter) was traveling eastbound behind Mock. Walter collided with the back of Mock's semi-truck as the truck was slowing to make the turn. The Semi truck came to rest in the eastbound lane of Hwy 23 at the junction of Hwy 8. The Silverado came to rest behind the semi-truck. Walter was not wearing his seatbelt at the time of the crash and sustained significant, but none-life threatening injuries and was transported by ambulance to the Newtown airport where he was life flighted to Trinity Hospital in Minot.

Mock sustained minor injuries and was transported via ambulance to the Trinity Hospital in Minot. It is believed that Walter suffered a medical condition at the time of the crash which was a contributing factor to the crash. Hwy 23 was shut down for approximately one hour until vehicles could be moved off the roadway. No hazmat was released as the result of the rear end collision.
