

One vehicle commercial motor vehicle crash west of Burlington

What: Property

Where: Hwy 2 MM 135 (4 miles west of Burlington)

When: 01-23-2022 at approximately 1909 hours central time

Road Conditions: Ice covered with snow

Weather Conditions: Snow/rain mix

Crash Involvement: Vehicle

Type of Crash: Roll over

Agencies Involved: NDHP, Ward County Sheriff's Department

Vehicle No. 1: 2015 Freightliner Truck tractor pulling a trailer

Driver No. 1: Gurjeet Sohal (male, 33) from Regina SK (Not injured)

Restraints: seatbelt

Charges: care required

NARRATIVE: Sohal was traveling eastbound on Hwy 2 operating a freightliner commercial truck pulling a trailer. Road conditions were poor due to freezing rain and snow. Sohal lost control of his vehicle near MM 135 due to traveling too fast for road conditions, entered the median, crossed the median, and then entered the westbound lanes of Hwy 2. Sohal struck the guard rail along the north ditch of Hwy 2, and the truck/tractor combination rolled onto its passenger side across both westbound lanes of Hwy 2 coming to rest facing north. Sohal was not injured. Both westbound lanes of Hwy 2 were shut down for approximately 4.5 hours until the truck/trailer was removed from the highway. Sohal was cited for care required.
