NARRATIVE:

On June 8th, 2024, the NDHP responded to a report of a two-vehicle rollover crash on I-94 just east of Exit 348 in Fargo.

Tiosha Darden was traveling eastbound on I-94 in a 2016 Dodge Journey when her vehicle was rear ended by Jade Mayse driving a 2008 Chevrolet Cobalt.

After colliding, the Dodge rolled onto its top in the median and came to rest on its top facing north. The Chevrolet came to rest in the south ditch, facing east and upright.

Mayse was injured in the crash and transported by Sanford Ambulance to Essentia Hospital in Fargo. Darden and one of her passengers, Keith Goldsmith were injured and transported to Sanford Hospital in Fargo by Sanford Ambulance. Darden's second passenger, Patricia McCoy, was injured and transported to Essentia Hospital in Fargo by Sanford Ambulance. All injured parties suffered serious, but non-life threatening.

Mayse was arrested for driving under the influence and driving under suspension.

The crash remains under investigation by the NDHP.
