NARRATIVE: A 2003 Dodge Ram, traveling westbound on I-94 while towing a gooseneck trailer, lost control after hitting a patch of ice on a bridge deck. The vehicle veered into the north ditch and overturned. The trailer detached, and its rear end landed on top of the vehicle, which had come to rest on its passenger's side. Both occupants were transported to CHI St. Alexius in Dickinson. The driver died from his injuries at the hospital, while the passenger sustained serious injuries. The crash remains under investigation by the Highway Patrol.
