NARRATIVE: On April 19th a NDHP Trooper attempted to stop the 2003 Hyundai SUV for speeding at the end of the construction zone westbound on Expressway/ I-94 west of Mandan. The vehicle fled from the Trooper and the Trooper pursued the vehicle onto I-94 with speeds reaching 90 MPH. The vehicle entered the next construction zone site and exited at mile post 153 off ramp. At the bottom of the off ramp the Hyundai SUV side swiped a GMC

Acadia driven by Beth Landenberger. The 2003 Hyundai SUV continued onto Old Red Trail and eventually came to a stop when the vehicle was undrivable due to the damage from the crash. The female driver was taken into custody and the juvenile child was released to child protective services.
