Heritage Center Disturbance

NARRATIVE:

The North Dakota Highway Patrol responded to the report of a 52-year-old male subject who parked his vehicle outside the west pedestrian doors of the North Dakota Heritage Center and State Museum in Bismarck. When Heritage Center security staff approached, the male subject assaulted the staff. ND Heritage Center security was able to control the individual until NDHP troopers arrived to help detain him. During the altercation, a Heritage Center security staff member received minor injuries. The male subject also received minor injuries and was taken to Sanford Medical Center for evaluation. This incident is under investigation by the North Dakota Highway Patrol.
