

NEWS RELEASE | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE | August 4, 2019

Motorist Flees Peace Officer

What: Subject fled from Law Enforcement

Where: US Highway 81 - Campbell Farms South of Grafton

When: August 4, 2019 @ 4:54 P.M.

Vehicle No. 1: 1998 Chevrolet Malibu

Driver No. 1: Julio Mendoza; 28; of Grafton, ND

Charges: Expired registration, driving while license revoked, fleeing or attempting to elude a peace officer NARRATIVE: On Sunday, August 4, 2019, at 4:54 P.M. a North Dakota Highway Patrol Trooper attempted a traffic stop on a motorist for expired registration on US Highway 81 south of Grafton. Julio Mendoza fled the scene on foot after stopping his motor vehicle and entered a building associated with Campbell Farms. North Dakota Highway Patrol and Walsh County law enforcement secured the scene and conducted a search of the building. Mendoza was not located and his whereabouts are currently unknown.

Mendoza is a resident of Grafton and may be in the Grafton, ND area. Mendoza is NOT considered dangerous or a threat to public safety, if you see him, do not approach, call 911. Mendoza was last seen wearing blue jean shorts and a red shirt. If you have any information on Mendoza's whereabouts, contact your local law enforcement agency.

For More Information Contact:

Sergeant Jeffrey Bauske 701-328-1081

jabauske@nd.gov