UPDATE Walkaway Reported at Missouri River Correctional Center

NARRATIVE:

UPDATE:

David Gray was taken into custody by authorities in Wahpeton, ND on 7/10/19

On Monday, July 8, 2019, between the hours of 6:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m., North Dakota Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (DOCR) resident, David Joseph Gray, walked away from the Missouri River Correctional Center (MRCC), an unfenced, minimum-security facility in Bismarck.

The DOCR contacted the North Dakota Highway Patrol dispatch as soon as the walk away was discovered and the NDHP searched the MRCC facility grounds.

Gray is serving a sentence for possession of methamphetamine with intent to deliver and was scheduled for release in April 2021.

Gray may be in the Wahpeton, ND area. Gray is to be considered dangerous, if you see him, DO NOT APPROACH, call 911. Gray may be driving a silver 2007 Pontiac G6, ND license 784BYK or a silver 2004 Suzuki Forenza.

If you have any information on Gray's whereabouts, contact local law enforcement of the North Dakota Highway Patrol.
