

Devils Lake 2 Person Injury Crash

What: Injury

Where: 4900 block of 82nd St NE (Just NE of Devils Lake City limits)

When: 12:00 AM on 9/9/2019

Road Conditions: Good

Weather Conditions: Clear, Dark

Crash Involvement: 1 vehicle rollover

Type of Crash: Rollover

Agencies Involved: Ramsey County Sheriff's Office, NDHP

Vehicle No. 1: 2005 Pontiac G6

Driver No. 1: Evan Volk, male, 22 yo from Devils Lake, serious injuries to head

Restraints: No seatbelt

Charges: DUI

Passenger No. 1: James Raynor Jr., 30 yo, male, from West Fargo, suspected minor injuries

Restraints: Seatbelt

NARRATIVE: There was a single vehicle rollover just north of Devils Lake involving two occupants. The vehicle ran off the roadway, rolled, and the driver was ejected and landed approximately 30 feet from the vehicle. There was one passenger who was wearing his seat belt and crawled out the window. He found the driver and tried to wake him. The driver did wake up and attempted to flee from the scene, but a Ramsey County Deputy was able to apprehend him after a short run. A trooper through his investigation placed the driver under arrest for DUI. The passenger and driver were transported due to suspected minor injuries. It was later found that the driver had a more serious injury and was flown to Grand Forks Altru Hospital. The crash remains under investigation.

For More Information Contact:

Sgt. Matthew Johnson 701.580.7442

majohns@nd.gov