Respondent.)

Insurance Commissioner Adam Hamm (hereinafter "Commissioner") has determined as follows:

1. PMI Insurance Company, FEIN 86-0777510 (hereinafter "Respondent") is a foreign insurance company domiciled in the State of Arizona.
2. On August 19, 2011, Christina Urias, Director of the Arizona Department of Insurance, issued a Notice of Determination, Order for Supervision, and Notice of Appeal Rights (Docket No. 11A-112-INS) placing Respondent under the supervision of the Arizona Department of Insurance.
3. On December 21, 2011, Commissioner Adam Hamm signed a Temporary Order Suspending Respondent's Certificate of Authority based upon the order of the Arizona Department of Insurance.
4. On May 6, 2013, Germaine L. Marks, Director of the Arizona Department of Insurance, issued an Order Abating Supervision for Respondent as a result of Respondent's improved financial condition and substantial surplus.
5. On June 24, 2013, Respondent requested that the Commissioner reinstate the Certificate of Authority of Respondent in the State of North Dakota due to the Arizona Department of Insurance issuing the Order Abating Supervision.

6. The Commissioner has reviewed and considered the request of Respondent along with all the documentation supplied to the Department by it regarding the reinstatement of its Certificate of Authority in Arizona.

7. There no longer exists any identifiable reason for the suspension of Respondent's Certificate of Authority as it existed at the time the company was placed under supervision by the State of Arizona.

NOW, THEREFORE, PMI Insurance Company having shown good cause, it is hereby ordered that PMI Insurance Company's Certificate of Authority be reinstated.

DATED this 3 day of July, 2013.

Adam Hamm
